St. Patrick's Cathedral,
Bangalore

FOR ORDERS.

In February last, the Secretary to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Mysore applied for a grant of Rs 15,000 for the enlargement and improvement of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Bangalore, in consequence of its being used by the Roman Catholic soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces.
In case a grant could not be given, he requested that a loan of ~~that~~ ^{referred to above} sum might be made to the Chaplain of the Cathedral on the security of the Church and of the sum payable by Govt. annually for sitting.
He suggested that an agreement might be entered into into to the effect that the loan should be repaid by annual instalments of Rs 2000. On this application, His Excellency the Governor noted.

"A grant seems inadmissible. A loan repayable from the sums paid for sittings might be allowed, and it seems desirable that a Church used by the Troops should be completed.
But before proceeding further, I think the military authorities should be asked their opinion as to the need of this Church for the use of the Troops."

2. The Public Works Department, in Communicating His Excellency's note, state that its rules do not permit of any grant to the Cathedral beyond Compensation for sittings and that the average of such Compensation during the five

five years ending 1896-97 amounted to ~~Rs~~ Rs 1027, which is insufficient to secure the annual refund of Rs 2000 offered by the Mysore Mission.

3. The Dy. Adjutant-
General reports that St.
Patrick's Cathedral is necessary for the use of the R.C.
Soldiers and that ^{about} one-eighth of the accommodation is taken up by them and their families (adults) at the morning service on Sundays.

Upon this His Excellency the Governor noted that the matter should be considered by the Financial Department.

4. Article 1396 of the Civil Account Code, Vol. II, states that sums of money may occasionally be advanced to individuals for special reasons; but the sanction of the Govt. of India ^{would} be necessary, ^{in the present case} as under Art. 1399 Local Govts.

Corts: may make loans without reference to the Govt. of India only within the limits and conditions laid down in Chapter 8 (Vol. I of the C. A. Code), and the loan applied for does not fall under any of the classes mentioned in that chapter. ~~Therefore~~ ~~may also be regarded as~~ ~~an administrative~~ ~~and not a financial~~ ~~the~~ ~~Govt. of India may be~~ ~~applied for under Act.~~

~~Under the C. A. Code~~

As stated above, the Mysore Mission offers to repay the loan by annual instalments of Rs 2000 on the security of the Cathedral and of the sum payable for sittings, while the average compensation during the last five years only amounted to Rs 1027. Under the circumstances it may be left to the Govt. of India to ^{determine} ~~decide~~ whether the annual repayment if it is decided to support the application

It would be useful to apply to India for this loan at present repayment may not be fixed at Rs 1000, and the Mysore Mission be allowed to repay larger amounts, should it so desire.

CMS
10.8.97

According to the letter through I doubt whether the spirit of Act

396 C.A. The loan would be with the sanction of the Govt. of India ^{seemingly} as desirable but even if it is I doubt very much whether that Govt. will permit it: there is - it certainly will not during the present financial pressure or for some considerable time to come
