To

The Hon.
The Chief Secretary

Sir,

I have the honor to state for the information & orders of Government that in 1896/97 the Collector of Malabar directed the sum of Rs 17-4-0 to be expended through the German Missionary now in charge of the old Palghat Cemetery - in repairs to that Cemetery, out of my allotment to the Collector for repairs to Cemeteries in the District under his charge.

2. To the ordinary course the detailed bill for the amount, with completion certificate would have been forwarded to me by the Collector & if they were in due order, would have been forwarded to me, & forwarded to the Acc. Genl.

3. The Collector has however informed me that owing to the German Missionary & his Subordinate having left Palghat he cannot send the requisite bill.

4. Under instructions from the Acc. Genl. I have the honor therefore to request Govt. will be pleased to allow the sum of Rs 17-4-0 to be written off.

This I have to beg, Sir,
Yours most obedt. servant
