NOVEMBER.

Budget Estimate.

Sanctioning the continuance, until the 1st April 1899, of the grant of Rs. 100 a month to the Railway Chaplain of the North-West Line; and transferring to the Financial Department the — of Ecclesiastical establishments for 1898-99.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 23, Ecclesiastical, dated 4th May 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Allowing, as a special case, the Government grant of Rs. 100 a month to the Rev. Mr. Pavey, Chaplain of Cochin, during the three years of his incumbency; and sanctioning, with effect from 1st April 1896, a grant of Rs. 100 a month to the Rev. E. S. Burgess, Railway Chaplain, North-West Line.

G.O., R. No. 1489, Financial, dated 3rd November 1897.

Order—R. No. 1489, Financial, dated 3rd November 1897.

The estimate will be referred to the Right Reverend the Bishop for remarks. It is observed that the grant sanctioned in G.O., No. 23, Ecclesiastical, dated 4th May 1896, to the Railway Chaplain of the North-West Line lapses on 1st April 1898. It should be reported whether there are any very special reasons for renewing the grant.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) A. T. ARUNDEL,
Chief Secretary.

To the Right Reverend the Bishop.

READ—also the following paper:—

From the Rev. C. H. PELLY, M.A., Bishop's Chaplain, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 15th November 1897, No. 1714.

With reference to G.O., R. No. 1489, Financial, dated 3rd November 1897, I have the honour, by desire of the Right Reverend the Bishop, to return the Accountant-General's estimate for expenditure in the Ecclesiastical Department with His Lordship's remarks thereon, and to request that, for the very special reasons stated, the grant to the Railway Chaplain of the North-West Line may be renewed.

ENCLOSURE.

With reference to G.O., R. No. 1489, Financial, dated 3rd November 1897, I have only to remark on the Accountant-General's note (c) that the Missionary who drew the grant for Kurnool has been absent on furlough, but is expected to return about this time. Application will be made to Government for a renewal of the grant.

As no other Clergyman is now available for visiting South-East Wynaad, the duty devolves upon the Chaplain of Ootacamund.

2. It is most important that the spiritual charge of the two Madras Lines—the North-West and South-West—should be divided between two Clergymen and not be borne by one only. In the whole length of the two lines there are not fewer than twelve stations, every one of which should be visited at longer or shorter intervals on a Sunday. Some of these intervals would be very long indeed, if there were only one Clergyman. Week-day services have not the same effect as Sunday services. They cannot be so well attended and are not so much valued.

Besides the stations on the Madras Railway, provision has to be made for Nellore on the South Indian State Railway. A Government grant was received for many years in aid of the stipend of the Nellore Clergyman and was discontinued only two years ago. Owing to the discontinuance the Additional Clergy Fund cannot provide a Clergyman for Nellore, except under the arrangement latterly adopted, viz., the combining of the two charges of Nellore and the North-West Railway and the division of the cost of the stipend between the Additional Clergy Fund and the Railway Trustees.

The Bishop and Archdeacon have hitherto received generous contributions from shareholders in the Madras Railway, and have thus been enabled, with the aid of Government, to maintain the three Clergymen required for the South-West Line, the North-West Line and Perambur. The monthly charge upon the fund is Rs. 475, and there are occasionally other charges, especially passages between England and India. If the Government allowance for r. Burgess were withdrawn, the Railway Fund and the Additional Clergy Fund together would not be able to provide the stipend for the Chaplain of the North-West Line and Nellore.

MADRAS,
15th November 1897.

(Signed) F. MADRAS.

ORDER—No. 94, Ecclesiastical, dated 19th November 1897.

The grant of Rs. 100 per mensem to the Railway Chaplain of the North-West Line, sanctioned in G.O., No. 23, Ecclesiastical, dated 4th May 1896, will be continued until the 1st April 1899.

2. With the above remarks the estimates will be transferred to the Financial Department.

I think there will be a further reduction in expenditure in consequence of the death of the Rev.
Mr. Beatty (Senior Chaplain) whose place will be taken by a junior chaplain, when appd, which may not be for some time. This saving will come to Rs 300 a month. We can consequently afford the Rs 100 a month grant in the next year to the Railway chaplain - I should therefore incline to give it for one year more Rs 17/11/97

The Budget having pointed out that the grant of Rs 100 p. mensem to the Railway Chaplaincy on the N. W. Line had been discontinued, the Rt.
Revd the Bishop was asked whether there were any special reasons for renewing
the grant.

In reply the Bishop's Chaplain forwards a minute by the Bishop with the request that for the very special reasons given therein the grant
may be renewed.
The matter is

is therefore submitted
