20 SEP 1898

Simla, the 13th September 1898.

SIR,

IN reply to your letter No. 68, dated the 14th June 1898, I am directed to state that the Government of India regret that they are unable to sanction the grant of a loan of Rs. 15,000, without interest, towards the cost of the extension of St. Patrick's Cathedral at Bangalore as recommended by the Government of Madras.

2. It does not appear from your letter that the extension of the Cathedral was undertaken on account of the accommodation required by the Roman Catholic soldiers and their families, who are said to take up only one-eighth of the total accommodation. Compensation on account of the sittings of the soldiers is already paid in accordance with the general rules prescribed to meet cases of this nature, and it would be contrary to the policy of the Government of India to accept any further liability.

3. I am also to refer to the orders communicated with the endorsement from this Department, No. ^{1-Ecclesiastical} 80, dated the 22nd March 1888, and to point out that it is incorrect to give to the Roman Catholic Bishop a territorial title as has been done in the first paragraph of your letter under reply.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

H. Lusson.

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
