GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., No. 59, Ecclesiastical, dated 27th August 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the Right Reverend the Bishop letter from the Government of India forwarding copy of corrections to Army Regulations, India, Volume VII, prescribing the dress to be worn by Chaplains of the Church of England on field service.

READ—also the following paper :—

From H. LUSON, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Ecclesiastical), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Calcutta, 22nd January 1898, No. 26.

In continuation of the letter from this department, No. 3-Ecclesiastical—223, dated the 12th August 1896, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of a letter noted on the margin on the subject of the dress to be worn by chaplains of the Church of Scotland on field service.

ENCLOSURE.

From F. G. CARDEW, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India, dated Fort William, 14th December 1897, No. 5715-D.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1989-D., dated 10th July 1897, conveying the recommendation of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief that the field service dress laid down in Army Regulations, India, Volume VII, for chaplains of the Church of England be also prescribed for chaplains of the Church of Scotland. It appears that the senior chaplains of the Church of Scotland in the Punjab, Bengal, Madras and Bombay have concurred in the proposal. His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief also considers it advisable that, with the concurrence of the Archbishops of the various dioceses in this country, the Roman Catholic chaplains be placed on the same footing in this matter as all other Government chaplains serving with troops in the field.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India approve of the proposal that chaplains of the Church of Scotland should wear on field service the same dress as that prescribed for those of the Church of England.

3. As regards a field service dress for Roman Catholic chaplains, I am to say that the Most Reverend the Archbishops of Bengal, Madras, Bombay and Agra were referred to, and, as their opinion appears to be equally divided on the question, the Government of India do not consider it expedient to lay down any rule thereon.
