READ—again the following papers :—

G.O., No. 91, Ecclesiastical, dated 27th November 1895.

ABSTRACT.—Appointing a committee for the purpose of considering the proposal to open certain new Cemeteries in and about Madras.

G.O., No. 41, Ecclesiastical, dated 6th July 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Approving the recommendations of the committee appointed to consider the proposal to open certain new cemeteries in and about Madras, and requesting the President, Municipal Commission, to submit proposals for the extension of the New Washermanpet Cemetery and the erection of a wall over certain portions of the Kilpauk Cemetery.

Extract from letter from the Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 7th January 1896, No. 41-A., read in the above Government Order.

As St. Andrew's Cemetery will, in my opinion, be closed in a few years from want of ground, it will be necessary to allot the Church of Scotland a portion of the new cemetery at Kilpauk.

G.O., No. 29, Ecclesiastical, dated 23rd February 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all officers concerned, for information and guidance, the revised Ecclesiastical Rules received with Government of India letter, No. 213, dated 8th June 1897, as amended by Government, and directing republication of the same in the Fort St. George Gazette.

From Lieutenant-Colonel Sir GEORGE MOORE, Kt., C.I.E., President, Municipal Commission, to the Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, dated Madras, 31st January 1898, P.W. No. 1151.

In forwarding copies of the marginally-noted correspondence, I have the honour to request instructions as to the disposal of the new cemetery at Kilpauk (G.O., No. 41, Ecclesiastical, dated 6th July 1896).

My reason for addressing the Venerable the Archdeacon was that, when the Washermanpet Cemetery was handed over in 1887, I addressed the then Archdeacon who directed the Chaplain of North Black Town to take it over.

In this connection, I would invite attention to G.O., No. 65, Ecclesiastical, dated 5th May 1888.

ENCLOSURES.

From Lieutenant-Colonel Sir. GEORGE MOORE, Kt., C.I.E., President, Municipal Commission, to the Venerable the Archdeacon of Madras, dated 13th December 1897, P.W. No. 1002.

With reference to the correspondence on the new cemetery at Kilpauk, I have the honour to inform you that the roads and wall have been made and to request you will inform me whether you are prepared to take charge of the cemetery.

From the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, dated 24th January 1898, P.W. No. 1113.

From the Venerable W. W. ELWES, M.A., Archdeacon of Madras, to the President of the Municipality, dated Madras, 27th January 1898, No. 4213.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your P.W. No. 1002, dated 13th December 1897, and your No. 1113, dated 24th January 1898, and to state that I am unable to find any Government Order under which I can take charge of the cemetery at Kilpauk.

2. It seems to me that the only course to be pursued is for you, as President of the Municipality, to write to Government and say that in your opinion the cemetery at Kilpauk is ready to be handed over to Government and to request Government to issue orders on the matter.

3. I presume that then either a Government Order will be issued directing what is to be done or the matter will be referred to me for report.

Endt. No. 208, dated 21st February 1898.

C. No. 72

SUBJECT.

The New Cemetery at Kilpatrick

FOR ORDERS.

In G.O. 41 Eccl. 24th July 1896 Govt approved inter alia of the division of the Kilpatrick Cemetery as shown in the plan with the original order, and requested the Presdt., Municipal Commission, to see to the erection of a wall over portions B to E.
and A, B, D. ^{flag} _{side} G and plan immediately succeeding
it.

Enclosure 1 of current } The wall and the roads
having been completed, the Presdt.
asked the Archdeacon whether he was prepared to take charge of the cemetery. The Archdeacon in reply said he was unable to find any G.O. under which he could do so and suggested that the Presdt. should address
Parish

Jost stating that the Cemetery is ready to be handed over & asking for orders
Mr Elwes presumed that either a fo. would then issue authorising the handing over or a reference would be made to him

In carrying out the Archdeacon's suggestion the Presdt explains that his reason for addressing the Archdeacon was that when the Washermanpeth Cemetery was handed over in 1887 he addressed the then Archdeacon who directed the Chaplain of North Black Town to take charge of it. The Presdt invites attention to fo. No 66 Eccl d 5. 5. 88

Please see Arch Bishop Colgan's letter on receipt of the fo. just quoted and the order thereon fo. 82 Eccl
12/6/88

It will be seen from fo. C
No 162 Eccl d 20. 10. 87 that when the then Archdeacon reported

9 31
reported to Jost that the Municipality had handed over the New Cemetery at Washermanpeth to the Eccl Dept, he was asked to "report the circumstances under which"
this was done (vide flag C). In reply he stated that on receipt of a letter from the Presdt intimating that the portion of the burial ground allotted to the Church of England could be handed over to any person deputed to take charge, he had written to the chaplain in whose district the cemetery was situated to take the necessary action.

As he was "not clear
as to the rules which govern cemetaries provided by municipalities", the Archdeacon on that occasion dealt with the case as coming under fo. 141 Eccl
d 17. 7. 85" which regards the whole cemetery & places it under the charge of the chaplain.

The

The Archdeacon requested that if wrong, he might be furnished with information as to the right procedure.

Nothing further however was said in the matter.

Apparently the Presdt wishes to avoid the repetition of any correspondence similar to that copy of which was forwarded with Arch Bishop Colgan's letter No 14 2/25/57/88

reading fr. 82 Ecol 12/6/88

Rule i (1) Appendix to G.O. No. 29. Rules. 1. 23. 2 & 8 (put up) delegates "the charge of the cemetery to the Resident Chaplain". In the case under refd the Ven. the Arch Deacon may be directed to appoint unless the Chaplain having local jurisdiction to take charge of the cemetery, his attention being drawn to rule vi (2) with refce to the Senior Chaplain, Church

The rules referred to are for the care & use of Govt Cemeteries throughout India except those in the Presidency Town of the Diocese of Calcutta & the Presidency Town of the Diocese of Bombay. Rule i. (1) says "The Resident Chaplain of a station has charge of the General Cemetery."

It is submitted that this course may be adopted, it being analogous to that adopted in the case of the Warhermanpeltah Cemetery a/c.
