Madras, the 15th of February 1898

Re. enclosed.

2. I would invite attention to Army Regulations, India, Volume I, Part I, article 839 from which it will be seen that the allowances to Wesleyan Chaplains for ministering to troops are paid by the Civil Department except on field service. The travelling allowances admissible to such ministers under article 667, Civil Service Regulations, are also audited and paid by the Civil Department.

3. In these circumstances, and as this Department has no concern with charges of this nature, I am unable to take any action in the matter.

cation from the Reverend J. A.
Panes, General Superintendent of Wesleyan Missions in Mysore and the Nilgiris, for the payment to him of travelling allowance for visiting Wellington. Bonigalore, the Reverend Mr. Panes' head quarters, is one of the nine stations included in the scheme described in the Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State No. 89, dated the 25th November 1897, an extract from which was forwarded to the Government of Madras with the letter from this Department No. 12, dated the 13th January 1898.
