JANUARY.

Rules for the maintenance of Chaplaincy Accounts.

Stating that the — embodied in G.O., No. 134, Ecclesiastical, dated 17th November 1898, should be made applicable to the chaplaincy accounts of the Church of Scotland, making certain addition to the note at the head of the rules, and informing the Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, that there is no objection to a monthly audit of church accounts being continued if he considers it advisable.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

ECCLESIASTICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Rev. J. N. OGILVIE, Acting Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 5th December 1898, No. 39-A.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of G.O., No. 134, Ecclesiastical, dated 17th November 1898, prescribing new rules and forms of account books for the maintenance of church accounts.

2. As these rules are said to apply to "all churches which are in charge of chaplains, and other clergymen receiving a Government grant," I infer that it is the wish of Government that the chaplaincy accounts of the Church of Scotland be kept in this manner, though no previous communication with the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland upon the matter appears to have been made.

3. As the rules now stand, they apply solely to the chaplaincies of the Church of England, but a slight additional note is all that is required to make them suitable equally for the chaplaincies of the Church of Scotland.

4. If this is the desire of Government, I beg respectfully to suggest that the following, or a similar, note be added:—

NOTE.—In the case of chaplaincies of the church of Scotland, for the word "Bishop" in the above rules, read
"Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland."

5. I may note on this matter that in the chaplaincies of the Church of Scotland, a monthly audit of church accounts by an independent auditor has long been the custom.

ORDER—No. 2, Ecclesiastical, dated 6th January 1899.

His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that the rules for the maintenance of chaplaincy accounts, embodied in G.O., No. 134, Ecclesiastical, dated 17th November 1898, should be made applicable to the chaplaincy accounts of the Church of Scotland.

2. The following addition will be made to the note at the head of the rules:—

"In the case of chaplaincies of the Church of Scotland, for the word "Bishop" in the rules, read "Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland."

3. The Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, will be informed that there is no objection to a monthly audit of church accounts being continued if he considers it advisable.

FOR ORDERS.

The Senior Chaplain Church of Scotland inquires whether the rules for the maintenance of Church accounts embodied in G.O. No. 134 dated 17.11.98, are applicable to the Chaplaincy accounts of the Church of Scotland, and if so, he suggests that for the word "Bishop" wherever it occurs in the rules, the words "Senior Chaplain Church of Scotland" be substituted, so far as regards to Scotch Chaplain.

2. He adds that in the C. 12. 12. 98

the Church of Scotland, a monthly audit of church accounts by an independent auditor has long been the custom -

3. It seems desirable that the rules should be made applicable to the accounts of Scotch Chaplains, & the note suggested by the Senior Chaplain might be added to the note which now stands at the head of the rules.

4. The Senior Chaplain might also perhaps be told that there is no objection to a monthly audit being continued if he considers it advisable -
