Sir,

I regret to have to report for the information and orders of Government that the Reverend G. R. Reynolds, Probationary Chaplain is incapacitated by illness from joining his appointment at Calicut.

2. I enclose a Medical Certificate dated 15th September 1899 from the Acting District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Trichinopoly.

3. One of the Lay Trustees, H. G. Joseph Esq., J. C. S., at whose house Mr. Reynolds is, writes as follows under date September 17th 1899 -

"Shortly before he handed over charge to Mr. Cameron on the 10th September Mr. Reynolds was found to be suffering from pleurisy, and some other complications x x x x x He is still confined to his bed and is likely to be so for some time. I do not think the doctors are able to give at present even any approximate time for his being able to move - His journey home expires to-morrow"

4. A note in the Civil Service Regulations Part V. Chapter XXVII, page 175, under rules regarding leave, says, 'A Chaplain on probation is not entitled to any leave during his probation except privilege'

Enclosed one

'privilege leave under Article 65b.'

The Reverend G. R. Reynolds was admitted on the Establishment as a Probationer, only on the 7th June 1899, and is therefore at present not entitled to any privilege leave.

5. I have the honor however to point out that Government seems to have power under Civil Service Regulations Part II page 54 Paragraph 199 to extend under the circumstances Mr. Reynolds' joining time for a term not exceeding thirty days.

6. If I am right in this view, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased under the special circumstances of the case to extend the joining time of the Reverend G. R. Reynolds for any period not exceeding thirty days.
