NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

In para. 5 of the rules regulating plague expenditure and accounts on page 226 of the 2nd edition of the Madras Plague Regulations, plague estimates for the quarter ending the 31st March 1900 are due in the Financial Dept. on the 5th January 1900. The last estimates, submitted in accordance with para. 6 of the same rules, are now under review. The work is almost completed and consolidation is proceeding. It is submitted for consideration whether ~~if~~ fresh estimates will be required in January. ~~and~~ ^{it} is thought ^{an} that it ~~would~~ ^{will} suffice if the order is issued that Collectors and other officers ~~submitting~~ ^{from whom} estimates ~~are due~~ ^{are due} need not submit ~~the~~ estimates ~~on~~ on the 5th of January, unless the actual expenditure is likely in any case to vary considerably from the ~~current~~ ^{est.} estimates ~~for the current year~~ ^{est.} as accepted in the orders now under issue. Where such is not likely to be the case, Collectors and estimating officers might be instructed to intimate the fact in a short letter or on a post card. The attention of all officers might, at the same time, be drawn to the rules reproduced in para. 8 on pages 226 & 227 of the Madras Plague Regulations. Submitted that L & M may be asked if it concurs in this proposal.
