No. 1695 P., 27TH NOVEMBER 1899.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From T. HESKETH BIGGS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated 26th October 1899, No. T. 400-Genl.—8217.

I have the honour to enquire whether G.O., No. 576, Revenue, dated 15th July 1897, under which officers deputed on famine duty in districts other than that in which they are serving should, as a rule, not be permitted to take their families with them at the public cost, is also applicable to officers deputed on plague duty.

My office has in several cases acted on the assumption that it is applicable (except in cases where the Surgeon-General has declared that a medical subordinate has been transferred to plague duty without retaining any lien on the appointment previously filled by him, and that the circumstances were such as to justify the concession), but it seems desirable that definite orders should be passed on the subject.

Endt. Mis. No. 3890.

Transferred to the Local and Municipal Department.

8th November 1899. (Signed) N. E. MARJORIBANKS, for Secretary to Government.

ORDER—No. 1695 P., dated 27th November 1899.

The Accountant-General is informed that G.O., No. 576, Revenue, dated 15th July 1897, is not applicable to officers deputed on plague duty.
