My dear Mr Stokes

The Native Christians
in the Madras District and one or two Christian Associations are desirous of presenting addresses to the Bishop on his retirement. Before concluding to receive them, His Lordship desires we inquire whether

There will be any objection to his doing so.

As the date of the first address has been fixed for the 10th inst any early reply will much oblige

Yours

Dear Mr. Stokes

Has any reply

been received regarding permission the Bishop receive address.

Several addresses have been prepared, & the Bishop feels it very unpleasant on his part

having to say that without permission he

99/9/99
cannot receive these.

One address is ready for Tuesday
