Enclosure 1 to letter to the Commissioner of the District No 1900 dated 22. Feb: 1899.

Calicut, 20th February 1899.

My dear Mr Archdeacon

In accordance with the enclosed letter from the Accountant General I have the honor to apply through you for one day's extension of joining time under the following circumstances.

1. The Bishop granted me 5 days' casual leave to be taken any time after Christmas Day 1898.

2. This casual leave I considered could be added to my joining time from Ponnammallee to Calicut making 15 days in all.

3. Being under some doubt however, I addressed a letter to the Accountant General from Ponnammallee. To this I received no answer.

4. I wrote again from Kottagiri when my joining time was drawing to a close, again asking the question. To this letter a telegram was sent telling me to join on the forenoon of 7th January.

5. At very great inconvenience I managed to alter all my plans, & get down to Calicut by the train reaching Calicut ^{on the 7th January} at 12.45, but arriving at Shoranur, a station in my District at 8.2; and at Tirur at 10.20. I actually took over from the District Officer at Calicut after two

This would have happened in any case, as the Lay Trustee only returns from business in the evening.

Taking the above facts into consideration, as the Accountant General holds that I overstayed my joining time by one day, though arriving in my Chaplaincy well before noon; I apply for an extension of my joining time by one day.

Also taking into consideration the short notice given me to join.

I have the honor to be

Your Obedient servant

F. W. Heycock

as chaplain
Calicut.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE

Rev. F. W. Heycock,
Acting Chaplain of Calicut.

SIR,

With reference to your letter dated the 7th of February 1899, I have the honor to state that, under Article 254, Civil Service Regulations, you can only be held to have assumed charge of the Chaplaincy of Calicut from the time when the transfer of the duties took place, and as you actually entered upon your office on the afternoon of the 7th January 1899, you cannot be held to have done so in the forenoon. Your best course will be to apply to Government for

for an extension of your joining time by one day.

I have the honor to be

Your most ^{obedient} servant,

W. Weston Elwes
Accountant General.

note for the Asst. Secy -

The Asst. Secy has advised the Rev. Mr.
Hoycock to apply to Govt.
for an extension of his joining time, but he has not yet given Govt.
an expression of his views as to the advisability of the concession -

Under Art. 198 C.S.R., extensions are granted for the public convenience - Art.
199 contemplates some accident by which an officer is prevented from joining within due date, & Art.
200 provides for the case of an existing notwithstanding that due diligence has been used. Mr. Hoycock's Case does not exactly exactly fall under any one of these rules.

If the Act. Genl
raises no objection, Govt.
will no doubt grant
Mr. Heycocks' application, for it was ^{clearly} ~~doubtless~~ his inexperience which led him to believe that Council leave could be combined with joining time - the fact remains however that he spent at Khatagiri time which he should have spent in travelling to his new station.

Under Art. 201 C.S.R.,
the Act. Genl has to bring to notice the Govt of Concession under Art. 200 which may seem to him improper or unreasonable.
It is better therefore to have his remarks before Govt than after orders are passed. It is submitted therefore that the proposed reference is advisable.

Reverend F. W. Heycock made over charge of the chaplaincy of Poona Mallee in the afternoon of the 26th December 1898, and joined the chaplaincy of Calicut on the afternoon of the 7th January 1899. As the joining time admissible to him is only 11 days he overstayed his joining time by one day. There is no account objection to his joining time being extended by Government under article 199 of the civil service Regulations.
