The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Simla, the 16th June 1899.

Sir,

In continuation of this office telegram No. 490 W dated the 29th May 1899 regarding a contribution from Provincial Funds towards increasing the accommodation of St. Stephen's Church, Ootacamund, by 50 sittings, I am directed to say that the proposals made in your letter No. 113 Ecclesiastical, dated the 9th September 1898 were contrary to rule and could not be accepted.

2. Ordinarily the Government grant admissible under rules X and XXIII Part IV, Appendix K, Volume I of the Public Works Department Code for the enlargement of a church from 350 to 400 sittings would be Rs. 3,500/- but the action of the Madras Government in having already irregularly contributed sums aggregating Rs. 6,293/- towards the cost of works which, though executed in connection with the Church involved no increase in the number of sittings, rendered any further grant under the authority of those rules inadmissible.

3. The Government of India however decided that the case was one deserving of special consideration, Ootacamund being the summer head quarters of the Local Government and of the Lieutenant General Commanding the Forces and his staff, and accordingly recommended for the sanction of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India a contribution
