I

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—Madras, the 2nd March 1907.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 8046.

I have the honour to submit, for the favourable consideration of Government, the accompanying plan with estimate amounting to Rs. 30,864 for providing additional accommodation for the Findlay College, Mannārgudi, and to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for a grant of Rs. 10,288 towards the cost of the proposed work.

2. The institution was established as a High school on the 1st March 1892 and recognized as such in this office Proceedings, Dis. No. 9789, dated 14th July 1892. It then had 107 pupils on the rolls and the accommodation then provided consisted of one hall and two rooms on the sides. In 1895 the strength of the school rose to 238. Partly on this account and partly on account of the manager's desire to open the First-in-Arts classes in 1896 an extension of the building was considered necessary and it was carried out at a cost of Rs. 8,150. A grant of Rs. 2,716 was sanctioned by Government towards this extension in G.O., No. 126, Educational, dated 25th February 1896.

3. In 1900 the Primary Department was also added to the institution. This resulted in a further increase in the strength as will be seen from the figures from 1900-1901 to 1905-1906 noted in the margin. The insufficiency of the existing accommodation has been repeatedly remarked on by the Inspecting officers.

Year.	Strength.
1900-1901	424
1901-1902	535
1902-1903	646
1903-1904	649
1904-1905	580
1905-1906	543

4. The net cost to management varied from Rs. 4,823 in 1900-1901 to Rupees 5,298 in 1905-1906 though the institution has been in receipt of an annual grant of Rs. 2,346 from Provincial funds and Rs. 734 from Municipal funds. The institution is thus in need of the aid sought for enlarging the accommodation.

5. The memorandum submitted by the manager showing the details of the proposed work and his letter, dated 23rd October 1906, reporting the nature of the soil and the sub-soil are also enclosed.

ENCLOSURES.

Memorandum of proposed addition to Building accommodation, Findlay College, Mannārgudi.

The number of students on the rolls is 533 distributed among the thirteen classes of the Primary, Secondary and College Departments. There are two divisions of each of the six Secondary classes making altogether nineteen classes.

2. In addition to the class rooms necessary for the above there are required—

- (1) A science class room.
- (2) A small science store room or laboratory attached to the science room.
- (3) A writing and drawing room.
- (4) An extra class room for the use of the Sanskrit divisions of the various classes.
- (5) A large hall for assembling the whole of the students (exclusive of the Primary department) and for meetings of the Literary Societies of the College. This hall would be also used by two divisions of a lower secondary class.

- (6) A Principal's room.
- (7) A Vice-Principal's room.
- (8) A masters' room.
- (9) A writer's room.
- (10) A reading room (already provided by Mrs. Bruce of New Castle on Tyne). Twenty-nine rooms in all.

3. The existing accommodation consists of one substantial building containing eleven rooms as indicated in site plan A., the Bruce Memorial Reading room and eleven sheds constructed of bamboo mats and thatched with cocoanut leaves.

4. It is proposed to provide pucca accommodation for all the classes, etc., in the following manner:—

(a) To demolish the wall between Nos. 6 and 7 (Plan A) in the existing building, and add 30 feet to the room marked 10, fitting it for the purpose indicated in paragraph 2 (5). No. 10 as enlarged would measure 80' x 33'. The present building thus adapted would accommodate the five classes of the Primary Department in Nos. 1-5 and the Lower Secondary in 6, 7, 9-11. No. 8 which is at present used as the Principal's room would become the office.

(b) To erect the two-storied building shown in plan B in order to provide accommodation for the two College classes, the six divisions of the Upper Secondary Department, the Sanskrit, Science, Drawing and Masters' room. As the College classes are large and the students require desks, specially large rooms have been provided for them upstairs. The need for desks also accounts for the larger sized rooms (upstairs) for the Matriculation classes, and for the larger size of the Drawing and Science rooms.

5. An additional piece of land measuring 150 feet by 60 feet has recently been bought for Rs. 215 for the purpose of enlarging the compound. It will be necessary to extend the present boundary wall so as to enclose this plot of land. A new gateway will also be necessary in the northern boundary wall facing the new building.

6. Plans and detailed estimates for the new building are herewith submitted. Detailed estimates have not been prepared for the enlargement of the present hall, No. 10; but the cubical contents of the additional portion would be about 25,700 cubic feet, which at As. 1-9 a foot would amount to Rs. 2,500. A lump sum of Rs. 300 has been put down for additional compound wall and gateway.

The total estimated cost of the scheme is as follows:—

	RS.
(a) Two-storied building, including supplemental estimate for Masters' room (A) and covered verandah (B)	27,849
(b) Enlarging hall No. 10	2,500
(c) Compound wall and gateway	300
(d) Cost of land	215
Total	30,864

Letter—from Rev. E. WEBSTER, M.A., Manager, Findlay College, Mannārgudi.

To—the Inspector of Schools, III Circle.

Dated—the 23rd October 1906.

In continuation of my letter of yesterday's, dated 22nd October 1906, I have the honour to inform you that the nature of the soil at the proposed site for the new college buildings is loose sandy earth to a depth of one or two feet. The sub-soil is red clay. I may add that the plans were prepared by Mr. J. M. Lewis of Madras after a personal inspection of the site.

II

Note by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, T. No. 82, dated 7th May 1907.

The estimate amounting to Rs. 30,864 for additions and improvements to the Findlay College at Mannārgudi is recommended for sanction with the following remarks:—

The section of the rolled steel girders should be altered as follows:—

Science and writing rooms from 14" x 6" x 46 lb. to 14" x 6" x 57 lb. class rooms on both sides of stair case rooms from 14" x 6" x 46 to 15" x 5" x 42 lbs.

The end bressummers of the upper verandahs are not necessary and may be omitted.

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

Dated—the 17th June 1907.

No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 8046.

With reference to your Memorandum No. 536-2, Educational, dated 10th May 1907, I have the honour to say that the Mission has already sent out from England the sum of £1,250 with which to carry out the work. I am satisfied that the management of Findlay College, Mannárgudi, possess the necessary funds for proceeding with the work and completing it within 12 or 15 months.

Order—No. 410, Educational, dated 27th June 1907.

The Government are pleased to sanction a grant not to exceed Rs. 10,000 towards the cost of providing additional accommodation for the Findlay College, Mannárgudi, subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) that in carrying out the work the suggestions of the Chief Engineer in his note read above are adopted;
- (2) that the work is completed before the 30th of June 1909;
- (3) that a certificate of the actual expenditure incurred on the work is submitted before the 31st of August 1909;
- (4) that the amount expended on the work does not fall short of Rs. 30,000 as actually verified;
- (5) that all other conditions prescribed in the Grant-in-aid Code have been duly complied with.

2. On the above conditions being fulfilled, the grant will be paid as funds become available.
