NOTES.

G. No.1248, from the Director of Public Instruction, No.3113, d/22-5-07.

Subject.

Resignation of Colonel W.E.G. Forbes,
Assistant Adjutant General, 9th (Sec.) Dn of his seat on the Committee of the Lawrence Asylum, Ootacamund.

The Committee of the Lawrence Asylum, as constituted under G.O. No.689, Educational, dated 22nd December 1900, consisted of--

(a) Six ex-officio members, namely--

- (1) The Brigadier-General Commanding -
Chairman.
- (2) The Collector of the Nilgiris - Vice Chairman.
- (3) The Assistant Adjutant General.
- (4) The Assistant Quartermaster-General.
- (5) The Senior Medical Officer (Civil Surgeon), Ootacamund.
- (6) The Commandant, Wellington depot.

(b) Three non-officials, elected by the Committee.

2. Subsequently, on the reorganization of the Military Department and on the transfer of the head quarters staff to Secunderabad, the following modifications were made in the constitution of the Committee:--

(i) The Colonel on the staff Commanding the Southern Brigade took the place of (1) ~~as~~ Chairman.

(ii) The Senior Medical Officer, Wellington, and the Superintendent of the Cordite Factory, Wellington, were appointed in the place of (3) and (4).

At the same time, the number of official members was increased by two, [^]for a further ^{to} representation on behalf of the girls of the Madras Military Female Orphan Asylum transferred to the Lawrence Asylum at Ootacamund - vide G.O. No. 513, Educational, dated 27th July 1905.

3. In February 1906, the Committee requested that as the head quarters staff had returned to Ootacamund, two officers of that staff might be appointed in place of the Senior Medical Officer and the Superintendent of the Cordite Factory, Wellington, who were paid travelling allowance for attending Committee meetings and for visiting the Asylum. The Lieutenant General Commanding the 9th Division was thereupon asked whether he would permit any two members of his staff resident at Ootacamund to serve on the Committee and if so which of them he would recommend for appointment.

4. The Lieutenant General Commanding nominated his two Assistant Adjutants-General (Colonel W.E.G. Forbes and Colonel E.C.W. Mackenzie-Kennedy) to serve on the Committee and they were appointed ex-officio members of the Committee in G.O. No. 423, Educational, dated 15th June 1906.

5. Colonel W.E.G. Forbes, one of the Assistant Adjutants-General, has now resigned his seat on the Committee saying that he is a busy man and cannot spare the time to attend the monthly meetings of the Committee.

6. The Committee submits Colonel Forbes' letter for orders and observes that it meets but once a month and that its meetings never exceed two hours in duration. The members of the Committee take it in turn to visit the Asylum every month, and the turn comes round about three times in two years. The Committee thus seems to think that the reason assigned by Colonel Forbes ^{for resigning his seat} is not a sufficient one.

7. Colonel Forbes being an ex-officio member of the Committee, he should, if he wants to resign his seat on the Committee, represent the matter to the Lieutenant General Commanding on whose recommendation the Assistant Adjutants-General were appointed ex-officio members.

8. It is for consideration whether Colonel Forbes' resignation may be ^{reported} ~~reported~~ to the Lieutenant General Commanding and whether he may be asked to nominate any other member of his staff to serve on the Committee.
