GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Order—No. 420, Educational, dated 3rd July 1907.

The Government consider that the system of periodical class examinations should be introduced into the Law College, as these examinations will enable the Principal and the Professors to test the progress made by the students. There should be at least two such class examinations in the year, one at the end of the first term and the other in the middle of the second and longer term, immediately before Michaelmas. The examinations should relate to the subjects dealt with in the lectures during the term, and should be conducted by the College staff.

2. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to see that the system above referred to is introduced from the next term of the Law College.
