Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.
To—His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George.
Dated—India Office, London, 14th June 1907.
No.—4 (Public).

With reference to the letter of your Government in the Educational department, No. 6, dated 15th November 1906, I have to inform Your Excellency in Council that I have appointed Mr. William Erlam Smith, B.A., of Balliol College, Oxford, to be a member of the Educational Service and to fill the post of Professor of Chemistry in the Presidency College, Madras, which will be vacated by Dr. W. H. Wilson on the 4th October 1907.

2. Mr. Erlam Smith is now acting as temporary Professor of Natural Science at the Government College, Rangoon, where the term of his employment expires on the 21st August.

3. I enclose the necessary agreement in triplicate, duly executed by two Members of the Council of India. When the three parts have been signed by Mr. Erlam Smith and attested, one part should be handed to him, one part retained by your Government and the third part returned to this country.

Order—No. 432, Educational, dated 6th July 1907.

The Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the Secretary of State has appointed Mr. William Erlam Smith, B.A., of Balliol College, Oxford, to be a member of the Educational Service and to fill the post of Professor of Chemistry in the Presidency College, Madras, which will be vacated by Dr. W. H. Wilson on the 4th October 1907.

2. An agreement in triplicate, which has been executed by two Members of the Council of India, is herewith forwarded. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to have the three parts of the agreement signed by Mr. Erlam Smith and attested, and after handing over one of the parts to Mr. Smith to return the other two parts to Government.
