G.O., No. 225, Educational, dated 17th April 1907.

II

Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.
To—His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George.
Dated—London, the 7th June 1907.
No.—4, Judicial.

I have considered in Council your Government's letter No. 2, dated 17th of April last, submitting proposals for the retention of Mr. C. E. Odgers in the appointment of Junior Professor, Madras Law College.

2. Mr. Odgers is unwilling to remain in the service unless the restriction against his taking private practice as a barrister, imposed by his original agreement, is removed. Your Excellency in Council is anxious to retain the services of Mr. Odgers, who has acquired experience of the wants of Indian students and a knowledge of the adaptation of English law to India.

3. You propose, therefore, to re-appoint him on the following terms which he is willing to accept, namely, that he shall receive a fixed salary of Rs. 650 without exchange compensation allowance; that he shall be allowed to practise in the courts in the city of Madras, under certain conditions; that he shall be admitted to the benefit of the European Service Leave rules, his past service counting towards leave; and that his service shall not be pensionable.

4. I give my sanction to your concluding a fresh agreement with Mr. Odgers on these terms. But I desire to lay stress on the indispensable condition that his college duties have a primary claim upon his time and must not be neglected for any work of a private character.

III

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—the 5th July 1907.
No.—Ref. on. Cur. 4681.

With reference to G.O., No. 317-R., Educational, dated 27th June 1907, I have the honour to enquire whether it is not intended to give effect to G.O., No. 662, Educational, dated 12th October 1906, under which Mr. Odgers was informed that his services would not be required after the 25th August 1907. The leave on medical certificate now granted to Mr. Odgers will extend up to 8th October next.

Order—No. 436, Educational, dated 8th July 1907.

With reference to the correspondence ending with his letter, R.C. No. 674, dated 21st February 1907, the Director of Public Instruction will be informed that the Secretary of State has sanctioned the re-engagement of Mr. C. E. Odgers, Junior Professor, Law College, with effect from the 26th August 1907, on the following terms, which Mr. Odgers is willing to accept, namely—

(1) that he shall receive a fixed salary of Rs. 650 per mensem without exchange compensation allowance;

(2) that he shall be allowed to practise in the courts in the city of Madras, provided that this does not in any way interfere with his work in the college which shall extend to not less than ten hours of lectures a week, with an additional hour, if required, of tutorial or examination work on Saturdays;

(3) that he shall be admitted to the benefit of the European Service Leave rules, his past service counting towards leave; and

(4) that his service shall not be pensionable.

2. The Director of Public Instruction will arrange to have a fresh agreement concluded with Mr. Odgers on these terms as soon as the latter returns from leave. The agreement shall be terminable by either party to it on giving six months' notice. The Secretary of State requires that Mr. Odgers should be given clearly to understand that his college duties have a primary claim upon his time and must not be neglected for any work of a private character.
