FURTHER PAPERS.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational ~~Local and Municipal~~ Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to report the following case for the orders of Government.--

^{Rau}
P. Narasimham who is at present 8th English Accountant on Rs.20/- in my office was prior to the -- formation of the Guntur District employed as a permanent Clerk on Rs.(15/+ Rs.5/-) in the office of the Superintendent of Police, Jeypoor. The Clerk having applied in July 1904 to the Special officer, Guntur, Mr. Brodie for an appointment, the latter gave him an appointment as temporary Record Sorting Clerk in the Godavari Collectorate on Rs.20/- and further promised to give him a permanent post in the new Guntur Collectorate, provided he gave satisfaction. The Clerk accepted the offer and on the expiry of the record sorting work, he was appointed by Mr. Brodie as an Accountant on Rs.20/- in my office. The Clerk has been working in this office since October 1904, and is reported to have given satisfaction. He has completed nearly 7 years' permanent and pensionable service.

3. At the time of the Clerk's appointment it was apparently supposed that he had been exempted by Government from the examination rules. When it was discovered that this was not the case, a reference was -- made to the Superintendent of Police, Jeypoor, who states that the Clerk was not exempted from the examination rules but was given an appointment on Rs.15/- "as no examination qualifications are necessary for a post of

Rs.15

Rs.15/- in the agency."

4. Under the circumstances I have the honour to recommend ^{that} Government will be pleased to exempt the Clerk from the examination rules with a view to his being retained in this district.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. Narasimha Rao is an unpassed candidate and was employed as a permanent clerk on Rs 15 + Rs 5 in the office of the Supdt. of Police, Jaypoor, in the Agency Tracts of Ganjam, which are exempted from the operation of the examination Rules - vide article 2 (2) of the Public Service notification.

2. P. Narasimha Rao applied for an appointment in the Guntur district in July 1904. He was given an appointment as temporary Record Sorting Clerk on Rs 20 in the Godavari Collectorate and on the termination of that appointment was appointed as an accountant on Rs 20 in the Guntur Collectorate.

3. The Collector, Mr. Moore, says that at the time of the appointment it was apparently supposed that Narasimha Rao had been exempted by Govt. from the examination rules, but that it was subsequently discovered that this was not the case and that a reference made to the Supdt. of Police, Jaypoor ~~has confirmed this fact~~ has confirmed this fact.

4. In these circumstances, the Collector requests that Narasimha Rao may be exempted from the examination rules with a view to his being retained in the Guntur district. It is said that Narasimha Rao has put in nearly seven years' permanent and pensionable service and that he is reported to have given satisfaction in the Collector's office where he has been working since October 1905.

It is for consideration whether the Collector's request may be granted.

The application for exemption has been based more on personal grounds than on grounds of difficulty in obtaining qualified men.

There can be no ground for this exemption.

The clerk has apparently received the Collector or the subject of exemption.

He will no doubt be able to obtain employment in Darypore on Rs 15/-, though it is not known whether he still retains a letter in permanent post from which he has been absent for 2 1/2 years.

The Government are not prepared to exempt P. Narasimha Rao from the examination rules for appointment to a post carrying a pay of more than Rs.15 per mensem in the plains. He will however be now exempted so far as appointments on Rs.15 per mensem are concerned.

2. It is not satisfactory that Narasimha Rao's superiors should have been left so long under the misapprehension that he had already been exempted from the examination rules.
