GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

No. 521.

From

H. D. TAYLOR, Esq., I.C.S.,

Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Dated Ootacamund, the 8th August 1907.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 524, dated 2nd July 1907, communicating the sanction of the Secretary of State to the scheme for the reorganization of training schools for primary teachers in this Presidency.

2. With reference to paragraph 2 of the letter under action, I am to explain that the Governor in Council has since called for proposals for the establishment of institutions for training teachers to take charge of upper primary schools in Proceedings, No. 437, Educational, dated 9th July 1907, of which a copy was forwarded to the Government of India with Endorsement No. 438, Educational, of the same date. The period of training of the primary teachers has already been extended to two years and that of upper primary teachers will be similarly extended—paragraph 7 (f) of G.O., No. 437, Educational, dated 9th July 1907.

3. I am at the same time directed to point out that the statement in paragraph 2 of the Financial despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 80, dated 7th March 1907, that lower primary schools are schools having two classes above the infants is inaccurate. Under the classification in the 4th edition of the Madras Educational Rules which was in force until 1st April 1906, lower primary schools are schools having three standards above the infant standard. The distinction between lower primary and upper primary schools has, however, disappeared with the introduction of the revised Educational Rules, which came into force on 1st April 1906. Under these rules, all schools are divided into two classes, elementary and secondary.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

Kanakasundaram Pillai and to the addition of Rs 2-8-0, which should be shown under Local and Municipal Departments with reference to the supplemental bill dated 26th March '07. In this bill Rs 77-8-0 was in the first instance debited to "clerks and servants" Educational and Legislative Departments, of which Rs 75-0-0 only subsequently transferred to Local and Municipal Departments.
