C. No. 1763 From the D.P.I.

No. 4409, dated 23rd July 1907.

SUBJECT.

Extension of the service of Mr. J.R. Scott,

The D.P.I. reports that Mr. J.R. Scott,

2. Mr. Scott is in the first grade of the Prov.

pension calculated on his present pay.

Mr. Scott is asst. Secretary to the Commissioner of Govt. Examinations for what he receives an allowance of Rs 350. Does this also count for pension? and can he continue to hold the appointment without special sanction after he is 55 years of age?

307.07

The allowance of Rs 350 drawn by Mr. Scott, as Secretary to the Commissioner for Govt. Examinations is a "Local allowance" and does not count for pension under Article 32 (b) of the Civil Service Regs. As Mr. Scott was appointed Junior Professor of English, Presidency College and Secretary to the Commissioner for Govt. Examinations by the same notification; and it does not appear that he can retire from the Professorship and continue to draw the local allowance without the Special sanction of Govt. - Vide Article 467 of the C.S.R.

But it seems he can continue to hold the Secretaryship and draw the allowance attached to it so long as he remains in service. Mr. Mesurier held the Secretaryship after he was 55 years of age without special sanction.

Sec.

The view in the office with seems correct. The main consideration is whether the retention of Mr Scott in the public service is in the interests of Government. The general principle to be followed is set out in Art. 459 C.S.R.

Chs.
8.8.7.

1. I see no reason why the post of Junior Pension of English and of Secretary to the C.S.S. should not be held quite independently of each other - but that is a separate matter.

2. The reason given for Mr Scott's retention in service after the age of 55, is in order to enable him to earn full pension on his pay in the first grade of the Prob. Ed. service, is not ~~in itself~~ a sufficient reason.

It is of course in the public interest that he should remain till the end of the term and of the Ed. sea., i.e. till 31st Dec 07.

3. But in principle, unless there is any special reason, in the interests of the public service, there appears to be no ground for the prolongation of the concern beyond that period. ~~to~~ Save a concern, merely

4. In a somewhat similar case - where Mr. C. N. Subrahmanya Aiyar in the 5th page of the P.R. Service, who had announced his intention of retiring - applied for an extension on the ground of losses incurred in connection with Repr.
Arbutnot. Co., pension was refused.

5. The D.O. does not state specifically that the proposed extension in this case will be distinctly in the interest of the Public Service.
