To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

Ootacamund.

Sir,

I, Venkataswami Rajah, a Kandyam Political pensioner, have submitted a memorial to His Excellency the Governor. The Private Secretary has informed that the memorial has been received and that any further communications should be addressed to you.

2. In the above memorial I have requested His Excellency that considering my leniase as a descendant of the Ex. Royal family of Kandy. One of my sons who has been educated up to the Matriculation standard might be exempted from the General Educational tests prescribed for a Sub Registrar or a Salt Sub Inspector. I need not trouble you by recapitulating the circumstances, which entitle us to a special concession at the hands of the Government, but shall content myself by stating a few supplementary facts.

3. My request is not an unprecedented one. The Government were gracious enough to exempt the following members of the Kandyam family who except No. 1 are not so directly connected with the Royal Family as myself.

- (1) Thyagasimhala Rajah, now Sub Registrar, Tanjore Dt.
- (2) The late Sundara Rajah, Sub Registrar, Madura Dt.
- (3) Narasimha Rajah, now Sub Registrar, Tanjore Dt.

Apart from this, members of family with much less pretensions to Royal descent and with equally less claim on the generosity of Government have been exempted from qualifying tests for posts posts in the Revenue, Magisterial and Police service and have been provided with suitable billets.

4. I have herein enclosed a copy of the certificate given to my son V. Kanniah Rajah by the School master.

5. In conclusion, I humbly request that considering the facts set forth above as also those detailed in the memorial, the exemption sought for my son may be granted.

For which act of kindness, the petitioner shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Chittoor.

10th August 1907.

Your most obedient servant,

P. Venkataswamy Rajah

C e r t i f i c a t e .

I have known V.Kanniah Rajah for about three years and I have much pleasure in stating that I found him to be a well-behaved lad. He belongs to a respectable family and his general conduct and behaviour are in keeping with his birth.

As regards general knowledge, I am able to state that he has read up to the 5th Form, i.e., the Pre-Matriculation class. I know him to be an industrious lad. He has a fair command of the English language. He will make a good reliable servant of Government, in case he secures an appointment. I shall be glad to hear of his success.

Chittoor.
