GOVERNMENT TRAINING COLLEGE,

Rajahmundry, 20th July 1907.

From

Mark Hunter Esq., M.A.,
PRINCIPAL,

To

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
MADRAS.

SIR,

In submitting the enclosed petition from G. Harisawthammas, I have the honour to make the following remarks.

2. The grounds for the punishment inflicted on Harisawthammas are clearly stated in the G.O., to which he refers. Other matters relating to him have been before Government in the Confidential report submitted by me to you.
3. The disciplinary orders issued by me to the students under training were, as Government are aware, and as Harisawthammas himself knows perfectly well, given by me by word of mouth when I addressed the assembled Normal students in the presence of the Vice-Principal. The orders were not written.

4. Harisawthammas happened, it is true, to be absent on the occasion; but it is impossible that he should have remained ignorant that such orders had been issued. When I interviewed him prior to dismissing him, he did not venture to assert ignorance of the order but merely advanced the plea that as he was absent on the occasion, and as the order had not been specially communicated to him he could not be presumed to know anything about them. This plea I set aside as in the circumstances not only frivolous but impertinent.
5. As for the grounds for dismissal not being stated in the order, I had on the same day interviewed Harisawthammas and he, in answer to my question admitted having presented addresses to Babu B. C. Pal; he was at the time wearing the prohibited medal; and asserted his right to wear it notwithstanding my order to the contrary. I thereafter informed Harisawthammas that I should dismiss him. There was consequently no necessity to specify the grounds of dismissal in the written order issued the same day. The petitioner knew perfectly well why he had been expelled.

The present petition is, I submit, if possible an aggravation of the original offence.

Have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm. H. H. H.
Principal
