The warden is provided with free quarters. vide pages of G.O. No. 544 Est., dated 27th August 1906, and pages of G.O. No. 500 Est., dated 27th July 1906. It does not appear that any other emoluments are attached to the post of warden. Cf. the office note on pages 10 of the notes with G.O. No. 355 Est. 27th June 1907.

Financial officer asked in the first instance whether any objection exists to the arrangement under which Mr. Kalani occupies free quarters. It can hardly be treated as a case of a recurring loan requiring Government sanction under 2172-74 CR. Please add to the file the letter received from Mr. Kalani on the subject of provision of free quarters for Professors in charge of Hostels attached to Colleges.

Articles 72 to 74 of C.S.R. relate to the acceptance by Govt. servants of a "fee" or "remuneration" or "honorarium". ~~No ruling is traceable as to whether the acceptance of free quarters from a private body should be brought under the operation of these articles (72 to 74 of the C.S.R.).~~

2. The draft order may, it is submitted, be accepted in Final, the A.G. being left to raise the question if he considers it necessary.

C.S.

Sub^d. That the acceptance of free quarters by a Govt. officer from a private or quasi-private body cannot well be differentiated from the acceptance of "remuneration" or of a "fee". India has (para 3(a) of Home Dept. Resol. 319-331 of 16 May 1906) sanctioned the provision of free quarters for not more than the Principal and one ^{of a Govt. College} Professor, when a
