GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Office-note—from T. FISHER, Esq., Superintendent, Government Press.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 1st August 1907.
No.—Ref. No. 1714.

With reference to paragraph 1 of G.O., No. 439, Educational, dated 10th July 1907, ordering a reprint edition of "Ethnographic Notes", the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that Messrs. Higginbotham & Co. have requested him to register an order for 200 copies, but on his refusal to comply with their request in view of the limited edition, that firm has expressed its willingness to take 50 on outright sale and 100 on the usual commission sale; 24 copies have been asked for by other people, and there is one book to be supplied free, or in all 175 copies up to date, so that only a few copies will be left over after these orders have been complied with. As it is presumed that some copies may also be required by the English Agents for sale on the Continent, the Superintendent solicits instructions whether a larger edition than 200 may not be printed.

Order—No. 569, Educational, dated 29th August 1907.

The Superintendent, Government Press, will be informed that the number of copies of the reprint of Mr. Thurston's book may be increased from 200 to 350. He is requested to price this issue at one rupee more for each copy than the first issue.

From the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, dated 1st August 1907, Ref. No. 1714-E.

The present reprint is not intended for general sale, but only for scientific bodies and individuals scientifically interested in the question. I do not think that copies should be made available for sale to the public through the agents and that they should be sold or issued only to approved persons. The popular edition which it is proposed to bring out may be made available to the agents for sale to the public.

H. D. TAYLOR—3-8-07.

The popular edition is to be published only in conjunction with the second and revised edition of the book and this Mr. Thurston does not expect to be able to bring out for two years — vide Secretary's note, dated 6th April 1907, on page 1 of K.W. G.O. No. 439, Educational, dated 10th July 1907. Until then it is submitted that the proposed second issue of the first edition will have to meet the demands of the general public. The price of the second issue of the book is to be fixed somewhat high and this will prevent the book from being purchased out of curiosity by the general public.

What sort of curiosity? Prurient curiosity is not to be encouraged.

H. D. TAYLOR.

2. The Superintendent, Government Press, says that 75 copies of the second issue have already been bespoken and that Messrs. Higginbotham & Co. require 100 copies to be supplied to them for commission sale. The Registrar and Superintendent of Records, India Office, in his letter, dated 12th April 1907, said that a hundred copies would be required for sale in England. In view of these demands it is for consideration whether 300 copies or a larger number, as originally proposed, may not be printed — vide Honourable Member's note, dated 23rd April 1907, on page 1 of K.W. G.O., No. 439, Educational, dated 10th July 1907.

The file was delayed for want of notes copies of G.O. No. 439, Educational, dated 10th July 1907, and G.O., Nos. 483-84, Educational, dated 29th July 1907, which were received from Madras only to-day.

T.K.—23-8-07.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—23-8-07.

If it is to take two years to bring out the revised edition, I submit that 400 or 500 copies may be struck.

C. A. SOUTER—24-8-07.

I adhere to my note of 3rd August 1907. Copies of the reprint should be sold only to approved purchasers, and Mr. Thurston might approve the list. The book should not, I submit, in its present unexpurgated form be made available to the general public through the Government agents or at any rate it should not be exhibited at Railway book stalls.

H. D. TAYLOR—26-8-07.

I am afraid it is now too late to restrict sale, or worth the trouble of taking precautions. Make the edition 350 copies and charge one rupee more a copy than the first issue. I can't find the figures anywhere in the file for the enhanced price proposed by Press; if it was only As. 8 I should make it a rupee extra.

Subject.

Soliciting instructions whether a larger edition than 200 may not be printed of the reprint of Mr. Thurston's Ethnographic Notes.

The present reprint is not intended for general sale, but only for scientific bodies and individuals scientifically interested in the question. I do not think that copies should be made available for sale to the public through the agents and that they should be sold or issued only to approved persons.

The popular edition which it is proposed to bring out may be made available to the agents for sale to the public.

H.D.T.
3-8-07.

The popular edition is to be published only in conjunction with the second and revised edition of the book and this Mr. Thurston does not expect to be able to bring out for two years - vide Secretary's note dated 6th April 1907 on page 1 of K.W. B.O. No.439, Edl., dated 10th July 1907. Until then it is submitted that the proposed second issue of the first edition ^{will} have to meet the demand of the general public. The price of the second issue of the book is to be fixed somewhat high and this will prevent the book from being purchased out of curiosity by the general public.

2. The Superintendent, Government Press, says that 75 copies of the second issue have already been bespoken and that Messrs. Higginbotham and Co. require 100 copies to be supplied to them for commission sale. The Registrar and Superintendent of Records, India Office, in his letter dated 12th April 1907, said that a hundred copies would be required ~~for~~ for sale in England. In view of these demands it is for consideration whether 300 copies or a larger number, as originally proposed, may not be printed. Vide H.M.'s note dated 23rd April 1907, on page 1 of k.w. G.O. No. 439, Edl., dated 10th July 1907.

The file was delayed for want of notes copies of G.O. No. 439, Edl., dated 10th July 1907, and G.Os Nos. 483-484, Edl., dated 29th July 1907, which were received from Madras only today.

If it is to take 2 years to bring out the revised edition, I submit that 4000 or 500 copies may be struck.

I add here to my note of 2.8.07. Copies of the reprint should be sold only to approved purchasers, & Mr. Thomson might approve the list. The book should not, I submit, be at present unobtainable from be made available to the general public. Through the Govt. Agents - or at any rate it should not be exhibited at Railway Bookstalls.

I am afraid it is now too late to restrict sale, or with the trouble of taking precautions make the edition 350 copies & charge ~~at~~ one rupee more than the first issue ~~if the~~ ~~cost of the extra copies will be~~ ~~the same as the first~~ ~~only 8 annas~~. I can't find the figures anywhere in the file for the enhanced price proposed by Press: if it was up 8 annas I should make it a rupee edition.
