In the notes connected with G.O., No. 585, Pension, dated the 3rd August 1907, on the pension application of N. Ramaswami Nayudu, late Assistant to the Professor of Midwifery, Medical College, the Pension department office noted on 29th July 1907 that orders should issue in the Educational department declaring the teaching allowance of Rs. 50 drawn by the Assistant to be a local allowance and quoted as a precedent G.O., No. 254, Pension, dated 7th May 1901. The following paragraph in the draft order was accordingly submitted for approval :—

“3. Orders will issue in the Educational department declaring the teaching allowance in question to be a local allowance”.

Upon this the Under Secretary (Mr. Galletti) noted on 31st July 1907—

“I do not know that paragraph 3 proposed to be appended to the Pension order is necessary. But after issue of Page 67 of G.O., No. 585, Pension, dated 3rd August 1907. “the Pension order, these notes may be sent u.o. to Educational.”

The Chief Secretary approved.
