To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,

The Accountant-General.

I have the honour to request that the Accountant-General may be authorized to pay to Civil Assistant Surgeon D. Gnanam Pillai, Assistant Superintendent and first instructor, Medical School, Tanjore, the teaching allowance of Rs 150 per mensem attached to the office of Superintendent for the period from 17th May to 24th July 1906, both days inclusive, during which he performed the duties of the Superintendent of the School, in his capacity as the District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Tanjore, of which office he was placed in charge in G.O. No. 747 Public dated 13th December 1906. It has been ascertained that M.R.Ry Gnanam Pillai actually performed all the duties of both the Superintendent and the Assistant Superintendent during the period and I beg to recommend that he be allowed to draw for the period the whole of the allowance attached to the office of Superintendent, viz., Rs 150 per mensem. The correspondence on which G.O. R.No. 747 Public dated 13th December 1906 was issued did not pass through this office and I was therefore not aware of M.R.Ry Gnanam Pillai's title to the allowance until a copy of the G.O. was furnished to me by the Superintendent. The Accountant-General who was addressed by me on the subject considers that the sanction of Government is required to the payment of the allowance under the note to Article 94 of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

O. V. S.

Forwarded to Government with reference to note to Article 94, Civil Service Regulations, 4th Edition. The rate of allowance Rs.150 was intended for a Commissioned Medical officer. It is for consideration whether the same rate of allowance should be granted to the Assistant Surgeon. The allowance, if sanctioned, will be in lieu of the allowance of Rs.100 drawn by him as First Assistant Instructor of the Tanjore School.

2. In G.O.No.R.747 Pub., dated 13th December 1906, Civil Assistant Surgeon, Gnanam Pillai was considered to have held charge of the office of District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Tanjore, from 17th May to 24th July 1906, and was granted a local allowance of Rs.100.

NOTES.

C. No.1975, from the Director of Public Instruction, No.1522, d/3-8-1907.

Subject.

Allowance to Civil Assistant Surgeon
D. Gnanam Pillai, Assistant Superintendent and First Instructor, Medical School, Tanjore for having discharged the duties of the Superintendent from 17th May to 24th July 1906

Lieutenant Colonel Hakim, District Medical and Sanitary Officer, and Superintendent, Medical School
Tanjore, died on the morning of the 17th May 1906 - vide G.O. No.379, Public, dated 18th May 1906 - and Major Wright who was appointed to succeed him - vide
G.O. R. No.333, Public, dated 6th July 1906 - assumed charge on the 25th July 1906.

2. During this interregnum - 17th May 1906 to 24th July 1906 - Assistant Surgeon Gnanam Pillai discharged the duties of the District Medical and Sanitary Officer and the Superintendent of Medical School, Tanjore. In G.O. No.747, Public, dated 13th
December 1906, Gnanam Pillai he was considered to have held charge of the office of District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Tanjore, from the 17th May to the 24th
July 1906, and was granted a charge allowance of Rs.100 per mensem.

3. The D.P.I. now requests that Gnanam Pillai may be allowed to draw during ~~that~~ period, the teach-

4. The Accountant General states that the allowance of Rs.150 was intended for a commissioned Medical Officer and raises the question whether the same rate of allowance should be granted to the Assistant Surgeon. It is for consideration whether the payment of the allowance at the rate of Rs.150 to Gnanam Pillai may be sanctioned.

5. It is observed that the allowance, if sanctioned, will be in lieu of the allowance of Rs.100 drawn by Gnanam Pillai as First Instructor, and that the net result will be the payment of an additional Rs.50 to Gnanam Pillai.

I agree with the A.G. that the allowance of Rs.150 was intended for a commissioned medical Officer and that Gnanam Pillai is not entitled to draw the same. At the same time the specific sanction of the Sd Officer was to the payment of the allowance to the Sd Officer. Under Local G. P. Gnanam Pillai was posted back as Sd Officer, the mere fact that he was in charge of the office would not entitle him to this additional allowance in any case.

Assistant Surgeon D. Quansam Pillai was not gazetted to act as D.M. & S.O. Tanjore from the period from 17.5.06 to 24.7.06 - In G.O. R. No. 747 (Public), dated 13.12.06, Govt. complied with the Surgeon General's recommendation that the Asst. Surgeon should be considered to have held charge of the office of D.M. & S.O. during that period, & he was granted an allowance of Rs. 100 a month out of the maximum of Rs. 150 admissible under Art. 142 (i) of the C.S.R.

He has already drawn an allowance of Rs. 100 a month during the period in question, as First Instructor of the Medical School. The Asst. Secy reports that the Supt's allow of Rs. 150, if sanctioned, would be in lieu of the allow of Rs. 100, so that the Asst. Surgeon would receive only Rs. 50 per m. extra if the Director's recommendation be approved.
