To Mr H. M.

Mr Braithwaite is Inspector of Schools 6th (Work Coast Circle). Mr Bowrie's return will act free Mr Logan, whose permanent appointment is Inspector of Schools 5th Circle. Coimbatore, where Mr Swanson is at present acting.

We have already applied to the State for the appointment of two additional Inspectors.

Mr. L. has forwarded the application. In the present transition stage of educational policy in the Presidency it seems undesirable to lend any of our officers - but if we do so it must be on the distinct understanding that the assignment is temporary for six months only. It would perhaps be better to wait until Mr. Middleton's term of special duty expires. His information is available as to Mr. Loken's intentions on being by Dr. Bourne. As he has not applied for leave he will, presumably, revert to his permanent post as Inspector of the Civil. The Inspector - West Coast Circle is not an easy post to fill. Mr. Loken may be consulted in the first instance.
