Sir, I reached Bombay on the 13th inst. As I had left Madras with an indifferent health the change of weather here has affected my system and I am laid up with fever and inflammation of the throat. My doctor is quite hopeful that I will regain proper health in a couple of days more. Under the above circumstances, I beg permission to state that I have not as yet begun my work at the Tannery.

I have the honor to enclose a bill showing my travelling expense from Madras to Bombay.

I beg leave to request that you will be kind enough to direct the Accountant General at Bombay to pay me the amount and arrange for my passage to Europe. I have informed him my address.

I beg leave to remain,

Sr,

C.No. 2119 From the D.P.I. No. 8442, dated 29 - 8 - 1907.

SUBJECT.

Payment of travelling allowance to Ramunni Panikkar for his journey from Madras to Bombay.

We have made no promise of such payment, but I think it may be allowed.

In G.O. no. 479, Edb., dated 26th July 1907 Ramunni Panikkar was required to undergo practical training in tanning with a Bombay firm and it was in pursuance of this order that Ramunni Panikkar went to Bombay.

2. Under article 1083 of the C.S.R. the Govt can sanction travelling allowance to students sent for training to a normal school or other institution.

4-9-07 There is nothing in Article 1083 of the C.S.R. on this point so far as I can see. Probably you refer to Note a) to this article, but this has since been omitted.

Third Edition) which says ^{that} under Article 1083, clause (a) (1). "travelling allowance may be granted by a Local Govt to students selected for Education at a normal School". It does not appear that the above ruling will apply to the case of Mr. Ramunni Panikkar. Perhaps the travelling allowance now claimed by Ramunni Panikkar may be sanctioned as a special case - we provide him with a second class passage to England; so ~~second class travelling allowance~~ ^{5.9.07} may be granted.

Govt. Technical Scholarship with a second-class passage to and from the place at which he will have to study. In Home Dep. letter 266 of 4.5.06, the Govt of India explained that this concession related to second-class passage to England by sea. No mention has been made by the Govt of India in regard to the payment of trav. allow to the Scholarship holder from his station to the port of embarkation. The C.S.R. do not contain rulings in regard to the grant of travelling allow to persons not in the service of Govt.

2. Submitted that it seems preferable to obtain a ruling from the Govt of India on the ^{point} ~~subject~~. In the present ^{instance} ~~case~~, a single second class fare for the journey from Madras to Bombay or double second class ^{fare} can be sanctioned as a special case by this Govt under the provisions of art. 278 A of the Civil Account Code.

Ok.
697.C.S.

The case had best be treated under article 278 A of the C.A. Code and single second class fare plus a money allowance for luggage to say Rs 20 be passed can sanction travelling expenses to the Scholarship holder from his station to the port of embarkation. Actual travelling expenses as defined in art. 13 of the C.S.R. ^{are} ~~are~~ presumably meant. The letter from the Govt of India is, however, not quite clear - e.g. Suppose that the person travelled ^{by railway} in a first class compartment. Will he be entitled to draw first class railway fare?

M The Darning actual T. A as the basis will cause a good deal more trouble than if some such rate as second class fare plus an allowance for X mannos luggage is adopted. Actual T. A will require audit against vouchers etc. In any case the class ~~of~~ by which railway travelling is to be computed should be fixed - India's last letter does not help unless they define "travelling expenses" more clearly. Govt may be asked to make a ref: on the question to India.

They have no objection to the T.A. being fixed at the rate of a second class fare for the proper T.A. of State Scholars should be given. If so, a second para to this effect may be added: "Holders of State Scholarships will be granted travelling allowance at the rate of double second class fare for journeys by rail." It may, however, be better to leave the draft as it is. T.A. may in cases include ~~for~~ allowance for journeys by road which will have to be fixed in each case. India evidently intend to give local ~~for~~ a discretion. Otherwise they would have been more definite than in their expression "travelling expenses."

In the draft recording the letter from India Fin. evidently intend that a general ruling fixing ^{second} class fare as the proper T.A. of State Scholars should be given. If so, a second para to this effect may be added: "Holders of State Scholarships will be granted travelling allowance at the rate of double second class fare for journeys by rail." It may, however, be better to leave the draft as it is. T.A. may in cases include ~~for~~ allowance for journeys by road which will have to be fixed in each case.
