Should necessarily arise

Mr. Ryves present engagement expires on 24th October. The B.O.S. may be asked ^{as} to ascertain whether Mr. Ryves is willing to stay on until a successor is appointed, or until the end of the current term.

✓ Yes (but won't he be 19.9.07 H.M. wanted ~~yes~~ the Mad. City?)

From the Press reports received yesterday evening of the Prop. of the Corporation, it does not appear that that body has accepted in their entirety the proposals relating to the employment of Mr. Piffith as special officer. I think it to be regretted that the reference was made, and it might be advisable now to adhere to the original arrangements & to ask the P. & L. to send out a special Engineer. It is very undesirable to ~~have~~ leave the Engineering College short handed. Hough perhaps, with the concurrence of P. & L. Mr. Morgan might be kept on after the arrival of Mr. James's successor.

A. Mr. Morgan certainly be best to keep as long as D.P.W. can let us have him; it is of the utmost importance to have no interruption in the lectures. As to whether Mr. Ryves may be wanted for the Corporation we can wait a few days

Mr. orders.

23/9/07

As ~~the~~ Mr. Morgan's services have already been placed at the disposal of Educatⁿ. under 1st T.O. and his P.W.D. service under Covenant expires on 3rd Jan^y 1908 prior to which there are some holidays I do not think P.W.D. need object to his being employed in the College until then. After that the question of his employment must take the form of an offer to Mr. Morgan himself. There is just a possibility of P.W.D. being in a position to offer him temporary employment for which he would be suited, but I think it quite probable that an offer of employment in the College which would enable him to take the College Summer recess would suit him better, as it has been reported that he has private affairs for which he would like to take two months leave in the course of the next 8 months or so.

Enc. a.o.

23/9/07

It is not possible to make any definite offer to Mr Morgan till we hear further from the S. of State. Mr Paves' successor may be appointed and able to arrive before Jan 1st 08. If Mr Morgan desires a permanent appointment he should apply to the S. of State through HM.

HE the Governor

23-9-07

There is no need to do anything more at present more about Mr Morgan. We have his services: whether he will be wanted after January depends on the S. of State.
