Station Madras, Dated the 18 September 1907.

From (Name) The Honble Mr. J. J. Logan, B.A.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Educational Department

Sir,

In April 1906 C. Gopala Aiyangar, First Assistant Government Training School for Masters, Tanjore, applied for permission to publish a book in Tamil entitled "The Indian Practical Kindergarten". Mr. Stone, then Inspector of European and Training Schools was thereupon requested to express his opinion of the work as soon as it was issued from the press and to inform the author that if the book proved to be unsatisfactory and be rejected by the Text Book Committee he should be prepared to completely withdraw the publication. Mr. Stone in reporting favourably of the book in July last stated that it would be "useful at the present stage of the development of Educational practice in the Presidency and that it was not a cram book but a painstaking attempt to adapt the methods of Froebel to Indian conditions." As under G.O. No. 498 Educational dated 26th July

1906

1906 which came into operation subsequent to Gopala Aiyangar's application for permission, no officer of the Department can publish books without the sanction of Government, I have the honour to request that such sanction may now be obtained for the publication of the book in question. Gopala Aiyangar holds the copyright of the book but on receipt of the orders of Government he will be required to dispose of it.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

C. Krishnamoorti
