Note No. 22 dated 9th October 1907.

Note regarding extension of Middlemast's special duty.

By Gazette Notification No. 100, dated, 17th August 1907, E.W. Middlemast has been placed on special duty for 2 months with effect from the 15th August. As the quinquennial report cannot, I regret to say, be completed by the 14th instant I beg to suggest that his deputation on special duty be extended by a week, i.e. up to the 21st instant, by which date the report is expected to be ready. Without the extension asked for I fear there must be further delay. The extra cost of Middlemast's deputation is Rs 140 a month.

The favour of His Excellency's orders by wire is requested.

A. G. Baines

Director of Public Instruction.

To,
The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department.

For Council.

Please have a minute if necessary prepared in anticipation. Please put up the last notification. Was any period specified?

Z

The last notification placing Mr. Middlemast on special duty which will be found on page 2 of G.O. No.436 R., dated 17th August 1907, specified a period of two months for the special duty. It does not appear to be necessary to have a minute for extending the period of special duty. A formal order seems to be sufficient.
