NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 701, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 16TH OCTOBER 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Special Tests Examinations at Bellary.]

From N. Raghavacharlu, Special Test Candidate, dated 11th October 1907.

Demi-official from the Hon'ble Mr. A. G. Bourne, Director of Public Instruction, to H. D. Taylor, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated 15th October 1907.

I return your telegram from Anantapur about the Special Test examinations at Bellary.

The number of candidates registered at Bellary is 190, of these 59 are Bellary residents, 58 come from the Bellary district and 73 from other districts.

Mr. Forbes thinks that it will not be desirable to order that special arrangements be made for so large a number but that the Collector may be warned that so many candidates are coming into Bellary or at any rate may come and that it is hoped that it will be possible to do something towards securing sanitary arrangements in connection with the examination.

I have not the wherewithal here to ascertain the dates of the examinations but this will be found notified in some recent issue of the Fort St. George Gazette.

The following telegram will be despatched to the Collector of Bellary:—

One hundred and ninety candidates are registered for examination at Bellary for the Special Test examinations to be held on 21st October and following days. Of these, 59 are Bellary residents, 58 come from Bellary district and 73 from other districts. Government hope in view of prevalence of plague that it may be possible for you to do something towards securing sanitary arrangements in connection with the examination.

H. D. TAYLOR—16-10-07.

After issue, please put up draft Government Order saying that Government are unable at this stage to transfer the examination to some other centre and that in view of the large number of candidates registered, it does not seem possible for the Collector to arrange for their special accommodation in camps but trust that he will do what he can to assist the candidates, etc., etc.

The demi-official has been typed and two copies are submitted, one for signature and the other for record. A draft order embodying the telegram is also placed below.

K. RANGASWAMI Aiyangar—16-10-07.

H. D. TAYLOR—16-10-07.

Demi-official from H. D. Taylor, Esq., I.C.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Educational Department, to R. A. Graham, Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, dated 16th October 1907, No. 2540-1.

The Government have received application from candidates who are registered to appear for the Special Tests at Bellary on 21st instant asking that the centre of examination may be changed in view of the prevalence of plague in that town.

It has been ascertained from the Commissioner for Government Examinations that it is impossible now to arrange for the transfer of candidates to other centres or to hold the examination at other centres.

From my telegram of to-day you will see that 190 candidates are registered of whom only 59 reside in Bellary itself.

The Government are not aware whether suitable accommodation could be provided for these candidates in the plague camps, but in view of their number this would hardly appear to be practicable.

The Government, however, hope that you will do all that you can towards securing suitable sanitary arrangements for the candidates who are likely to come to Bellary in connection with the examination.
