In view of the general unhealthiness of the backward state of education of the Agency tracts, and of the difficulty of getting qualified teachers, it appears to be necessary to fix a slightly higher rate of pay than that provided in Rule 82 of the Educational Rules. In G.O. no. 686 Est. dated 26th October 1906, the Govt. sanctioned a salary of Rs 12 per mensem to the teachers of the two new schools opened in the current year in the same taluq and it is for consideration whether the salaries of all the teachers of all the proposed schools may be placed at the uniform rate Rs 12 per mensem.
