GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from A. G. BOURNE, Esq., D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 30th September 1907.
No.—R.C. 6892.

In G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907, Mr. James, Professor of Engineering, College of Engineering, was deputed to visit some of the chief engineering laboratories attached to technical colleges in the United Kingdom during the last summer vacation of the college. He left Madras on the 1st May 1907 and Bombay by the mail steamer on Saturday the 4th and arrived in London on the 19th idem. He reported his arrival at the India Office on the 21st and having received instructions from the Board of Education set out immediately on inspection. He seems to have made good use of the limited time at his disposal, and has inspected 23 colleges and institutions. I beg to enclose his travelling allowance bill for the sanction of Government.

2. The amount can be met from savings under 'Salaries' in the budget estimate of the college consequent on the retirement of Colonel Love.

Order—No. 711, Educational, dated 21st October 1907.

The deputation of Mr. James to visit some of the laboratories attached to the technical colleges in the United Kingdom during the last summer vacation of the College of Engineering was sanctioned on the understanding that it was Mr. James' intention to visit England during the vacation irrespective of such deputation. The Government are therefore unable to entertain the claim now put forward by Mr. James for travelling allowance to England and back.

(True Extract.)

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 711, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
 21st OCTOBER 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Submitting for sanction of Government a travelling allowance bill on behalf of Mr. James, Professor of Engineering, College of Engineering, who was deputed to visit some of the Chief Engineering laboratories attached to Technical colleges in the United Kingdom during the last summer vacation.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 30th September 1907, No. 6892.

Please put up papers. It was understood that Mr. James was going home for the vacation in any case and there was no intention to pay him the cost of his passage home. He was to get expenses at home £1 a day, I think.

H. D. TAYLOR—3-10-07.

Please see G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907, and the notes therewith.

2. From paragraph 10 of Colonel Love's letter on page 2 of the notes with the above Government Order, it is observed that Mr. James was deputed at the instance of Colonel Love. Attention is also solicited to the telegram to the Secretary of State on page 5 of the same notes, in which the Government requested that Mr. James might be granted "travelling and hotel expenses up to a guinea" per day, for the period spent on the inspection of the Technical colleges and laboratories. The question of paying Mr. James his travelling allowances to and from England does not appear to have been considered when G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907, was passed.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—9-10-07.

It does not appear from the notes with G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907, whether it was in any case Mr. James' intention to proceed to England during last vacation. If it was, then his claim for the expenses of the journey is inadmissible. If it was not, his claim seems valid.

C. A. SOUTER—10-10-07.

Please see my note at A on page 3 of notes with G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907. I was certainly under the impression all along that it was Mr. James' intention to visit England during the vacation, and the Government Order was passed on that understanding.

H. D. TAYLOR—11-10-07.

Certainly, we should never have consented to his going to England and back at the public expense.

I cannot find in the file the Secretary of State's despatch sanctioning daily allowance for Mr. James' expenses at home.

Mr. James has not yet submitted his notes?

H. D. TAYLOR—17-10-07.

Submitted that no despatch from the Secretary of State on the subject of the allowance granted to Mr. James has been received. Mr. James has also not submitted any notes yet. He returned to duty on 1st July 1907.

From the notes with G.O., No. 249, Educational, dated 27th April 1907, it does not appear that the Secretary of State was requested to communicate his sanction to this Government. Mr. James was told to take the Secretary of State's orders. The matter of the notes is a separate subject and they can be separately called for. The draft may issue.
