The new Superintendent of the School of Arts, Mr. Hadaway, was to have left for India on 12th October by S. S. "Dilwara" and may be expected to arrive in Madras by the end of October or the beginning of November. It does not appear to be likely that the new Superintendent will be able to submit the scheme for the reorganization of the School of Arts and that orders will be passed on it before the 31st December 1907. The temporary establishment will be required until the reorganization is sanctioned and is brought into force. For orders whether, in these circumstances, the Director of Public Instruction's proposal to retain the establishment until the 31st March 1908, may be approved. Perhaps it will be sufficient if sanction is accorded to the retention of the establishment until the 31st March 1908, or until

H. D. TAYLOR. | The proposal at A above seems suitable. It seems inexpedient to sanction the extension of the establishment for any fixed date as this in all probability will lead to further correspondence. When Mr. Hadaway arrives he may be asked to lose no time in submitting his proposals for reorganizing the school.
