READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from Dr. A. G. BOURNE, F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction, Madras.
To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department.
Dated—the 25th September 1907.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 7130.

In submitting for the orders of Government, the enclosed copy of a letter, dated 23rd instant, from Miss C. L. Gillingham, Superintendent, Primary Department, Teachers' College, Saidapet, resigning her appointment and requesting that she may be relieved from her duties on the 2nd December next, I have the honour to recommend that her resignation be accepted. I presume that, under paragraph 4 of the agreement executed by her, she will have to refund the cost of her passage to Madras.

2. If her resignation is accepted, the Secretary of State may be asked to appoint a competent successor to her at an early date, so that the lady appointed may, if possible, arrive here in time to join her appointment on the reopening of the Teachers' College in January next.

ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from C. L. GILLINGHAM, Superintendent, Primary Department, Teachers' College, Saidapet
To—the Director of Public Instruction, Madras (through the Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet).
Dated—the 23rd September 1907.

As circumstances of a private nature necessitate my quitting service in the Educational Department, I beg to request that you will be pleased to accept this application as my letter of resignation and to arrange with the Government of Madras to relieve me from my duties on the second of December (December 2nd) 1907.

Order—No. 766, Educational, dated 18th November 1907.

Miss Gillingham's resignation will be accepted; but, under paragraph 4 of the agreement executed by her, she will be required to refund the cost of her passage to Madras.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 766, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 18TH NOVEMBER 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Requesting that the resignation tendered by Miss C. L. Gillingham, Lady Superintendent, Primary Department, Teachers' College, Saidapet, may be accepted and that she may be relieved from her duties on the 2nd December next.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 25th September 1907, No. 7130.

Put up Miss Gillingham's agreement please.

H. D. TAYLOR—27-9-07.

Miss Gillingham's agreement will be found printed on pages 4 and 5 of G.O., No. 419, Educational, dated 8th July 1904.

2. Paragraph 4 of the agreement says—

"That if the party of the first part shall during the said term of five years relinquish the service of the Government (whether after having given notice or otherwise) she shall forthwith on demand pay to the Secretary of State for India in Council the cost of her passage to Madras."

3. Miss Gillingham arrived in Madras in August 1904 and has been here for only three years. She has therefore under the agreement to refund the cost of her passage to Madras.

4. The Director of Public Instruction recommends that Miss Gillingham's resignation may be accepted. He also requests that, if the resignation is accepted, the Secretary of State may be asked to appoint a competent successor to her at an early date.

5. It is for consideration—

- (1) whether Miss Gillingham's resignation may be accepted,
- (2) whether she may be asked to refund her passage, and
- (3) whether the Secretary of State may be asked to appoint a successor to her.

6. Attention is solicited to G.O., No. 271, Educational, dated 18th April 1906, in which Miss Scott-Coward was required to refund her passage money when her resignation was accepted.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—10-10-07.

C. A. SOUTER—10-10-07.

Miss Gillingham went home for the vacation and obtained extraordinary leave in continuation thereof? When did she actually return to duty?

H. D. TAYLOR—12-10-07.

The last summer vacation of the Teachers' College extended from 29th April to 1st July 1907. Miss Gillingham went home for the vacation and obtained from the Secretary of State leave on medical certificate for two months from 1st July 1907. She was due back therefore on 1st September 1907 and must have returned to duty on that date. The actual date of her return is however not known.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—12-10-07.

C. A. SOUTER—12-10-07.

Miss Gillingham appears to consider that three months' notice after return from the enjoyment of vacation leave is all that is necessary. But I submit that this applies only to retirement in the case of ordinary service.

I think that Miss Gillingham's agreement might be construed as implying that six months' notice is necessary in any case. She has to be replaced, and it would in any case be difficult to arrange for work during the last month of the term.

A I submit that Miss Gillingham may be told that the Government are not prepared to accept her resignation till 31st December 1907.

2. She will also be required to refund the passage money drawn.

3. The following telegram may be despatched to the Secretary of State:—

"Miss Gillingham who was appointed under your despatch No. 3 (Public Educational), dated 10th June 1904, as Headmistress, Teachers' College, Saidapet, has intimated her intention of retiring in December next. We should be obliged if you would select a successor at a very early date so as to arrive if possible on 1st January 1908 in accordance with the terms of our despatch No. 5, Educational, dated 17th November 1903."

H. D. TAYLOR—12-10-07.

G. S. F[ORBES]—14-10-07.

Please codify and draft as at A.

H. D. TAYLOR—15-10-07.

The telegram as codified is submitted together with fair for signature.

2. The wording of the telegram had to be slightly altered in two places: For "has intimated her intention of retiring," the words "has applied to retire from the service" have been adopted. In the place of the words "in accordance with the terms of our despatch," the words "in accordance with the spirit of our despatch" have been adopted.

H. D. TAYLOR.

H. D. TAYLOR.

3. The draft will be submitted after issue of the telegram.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—15-10-07.

Approved. The telegram should be confirmed to Under Secretary of State by this mail or a formal despatch may be drafted.

H. D. TAYLOR—15-10-07.

A draft letter confirming the above telegram is submitted below with fair copy for signature.

2. After issue of this letter, a formal despatch will be drafted.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—16-10-07.

Issue.

C. A. SOUTER—16-10-07.

[G.O., No. 540 R., dated 16th October 1907.]

A draft order and a draft despatch to the Secretary of State are placed below.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—21-10-07.

C. A. SOUTER—28-10-07.

Is the amount of Miss Gillingham's passage money known? In Miss Scott-Coward's case it was £50. The agreement mentions a first-class passage only, and she sailed by the British S.S. Circassia—I think, of the Anchor line.

H. D. TAYLOR—29-10-07.

[Telephoned to Director of Public Instruction on 29th October 1907—5 P.M.]

Telephonic message from the Director of Public Instruction, dated 30th October 1907.

The cost of a first-class passage is believed to be £50 or Rs. 750 and this Miss Gillingham will have to refund.

The above telephone does not give any definite information. The Accountant-General's office cannot furnish the information asked for by the Secretary. The following telephonic message will be sent to Messrs. Best & Co. Messrs. Binny & Co. :—

Will you please let me know the cost of a first-class passage from England to Madras by the British S.S. Circassia of the Anchor line?

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—4-11-07.

After repeated reminders both the Companies have replied to say that they have nothing to do with that line and that they cannot furnish the information asked for.

2. In the case of Miss Scott-Coward, the agreement stated that she should be provided with a first-class passage to Madras and further contained the stipulation that in the event of her relinquishing service within five years she should refund the sum of £50 being the cost of her passage to Madras.

Paragraph 1 of the agreement, page 3 of G.O., No. 639, Educational, dated 22nd December 1903.

Paragraph 4 of the agreement ibid.

3. In the case of Miss Gillingham, the agreement does not specify the amount which she should refund on account of passage money, but simply says that she should refund "the cost of her passage to Madras."

Vide paragraph 4 of the agreement, page 4 of G.O., No. 419, Educational, dated 8th July 1904.

4. For orders whether £50 may be adopted in this case also, as in the case of Miss Scott-Coward.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—14-11-07.

Mr. Davies has just told me that he came out by the Anchor line and that the fare was £37-10-0. This does not include the recent rise in these fares.

C. A. SOUTER—14-11-07.

Fifteen days wasted over this! and it is urgent.

H. D. TAYLOR.

Why leave matters of business to the clerks? The Assistant Secretary should have seen to it. Think of applying to the wrong Agents and about a particular ship!

G. S. F[ORBES].

The Accountant-General will have to ascertain the amount on receipt of the order if it is not specifically known.

For approval.

H. D. TAYLOR—15-11-07.

Has no communication been yet made to Miss Gillingham about her resignation? This is really too bad, if so. No, I have informed the Honourable Member. She wrote on 23rd September and we inform her of a decision adverse to her a few days before the date she proposes to resign! I passed orders on 14th October, which should have issued at once. The form of the order should be accepting her resignation but under her agreement requesting her to refund passage money. We cannot force her to stop till 31st December.

Yes.

H. D. TAYLOR—17-11-07.

I understand the Secretary of State has been asked by telegram to replace her.

G. S. F[ORBES]—16-11-07.

I have already spoken to the Deputy Registrar about the unnecessary delay caused by telephoning to business firms in matters in which they are not interested. Cook's Oriental Guide is regularly received in the office which could easily have verified the rate of passage by the Anchor line and resubmitted the file on the same day, 23th.

The file has even now been resubmitted without any fair copy for signature. See that fair copy, in duplicate, is prepared for signature and despatched, first thing, to-morrow to Director of Public Instruction—one copy to Director of Public Instruction and one copy to Miss Gillingham through Director of Public Instruction marked "immediate."

Mr. J. Gilliam appears to consider that three months notice after return from the engagement of vacation leave is all that is necessary. But I doubt that this applies only to retirement ~~at the~~ ~~end of term~~, in the case of ordinary service.

I think that Miss Pillsbury's agreement might be construed as implying that six months notice is necessary in any case. She has to be replaced, and it would in any case be difficult to arrange for work during the last month of the term.

I submit that Mrs Gillingham

After repeated reminders both to the Companies have replied to say that they have nothing to do with that line & that they cannot furnish the information asked for.

2. In the case of Miss Scott Coward, the agreement stated that she should be provided with a first class passage to Madras, and further stipulated contained the stipulation that in the event of her relinquishing service within five years she should refund the <sup>sum of £50, being the</sup> cost of her passage to Madras.

3. In the <sup>case of</sup> agreement with Miss Gillingham, the agreement does not specify the amount which she should refund on account of passage
