Letter—from the Honorary Secretary, Anglo-Vernacular Primary School, Triplicane.

Dated—the 19th October 1907.

No.—22.

2. We negotiated with Mr. Alavandar Chettiyar for the sale of his house and he agreed finally to settle it for Rs. 6,500. It is now nearly eight months since the date of the oral settlement of the negotiation and no further action could be taken in the matter pending your sanction.

3. The owner has written to me that he has a better offer for the house and cannot wait indefinitely. I believe there is keen competition for the purchase of that house, and there is no other house, offered for sale, which is suitably situated for the purposes of our school. Further delay in closing the transaction may, I am afraid, tend to enhance the price of the house and may even deprive the school of the chances of securing it.

4. Under these circumstances I have the honour to request that you will kindly give me permission to close the bargain with the owner of the house in anticipation of final sanction, and return the papers relating thereto at your earliest convenience.

Ref. on C. No. 1636, dated 25th October 1907.

Submitted to Government, Educational Department, in continuation of this office R.O.C. No. 1636, dated 20th May 1907, and recommended that, in the circumstances stated, the management may be permitted, as a very special case, to purchase the property in question without prejudice to their application for grant but on the distinct understanding that no guarantee is afforded that any particular amount of grant or any grant whatever will be sanctioned. The examination of the title-deeds ordered in G.O., No. 366, dated 11th June 1907, is not yet completed.

A. G. BOURNE,
Director of Public Instruction.

Order—No. 767, Educational, dated 18th November 1907.

In the circumstances stated, the managers of the Anglo-Vernacular Primary School, Triplicane, will be permitted, as a very special case, to purchase the building and site in question on the distinct understanding that no guarantee is given that any particular amount of grant or any grant whatever will be sanctioned towards the cost of the building and site.
