X the asst. Secretary, Educational Dept dated 24th March 1906.

Passed men do not serve long in the appointment. Since the opening of the library in 1896, some individuals have held this post, some of them leaving it in a few days. Others have held the post as a convenience till they secure an appointment carrying higher pay. The constant change of hands is not favourable to the working of the library, as it gives rise to delay in the issue of books to readers, and misplacing of books on the shelves till the new hands are trained, which takes a considerable time.

He is the permanent 3rd attendant, and has worked in the library for nearly 11 years, during which period he has acted as the 2nd attendant more than a dozen times for periods ranging from a few days to nine months. He has acquired a good knowledge of the contents of the library and the arrangement of the books, and can issue books quickly and return them to their proper places without difficulty.

The technical training which he has received in the library work is more valuable than mere examination qualifications.

C.No. 2456. From the Principal Librarian, Commemara Public Library, No. 324, dated 2-10-1907.

In G.O. 113 Est. V. 24. 2. 1899, the Govt. declined to sanction the permanent exemption from the Upper Secondary examination of S. Sadagopala Nayudu, 3rd Attendant, Commemara Public Library, for promotion to the post of 2nd attendant. The reasons then urged by the Principal Librarian in support of his request were that passed men would not serve in the post for long, as there was no prospect of promotion and that the Candidates in the Library appointment, in view of his experience of the work, would be advantageous to the institution and to the Public. The Govt. however, did not consider that these were sufficient reasons for the grant of exemption. 2. Much the same reasons are advanced in his present application also. Apparently no steps have been taken to secure the services of passed Candidates for the post. The Principal Librarian says that since 1896, seven Candidates have held the post, some leaving it in a few days, while others ~~making~~ ^{make} it a convenience till they secured an appointment on higher pay. ~~He~~ ^{he} ~~states~~ ^{observes} that constant change of hands is unfavourable to the working of the Library, and that the technical ~~knowledge~~ ^{training} which Sadagopala Nayudu has obtained in the library work is more valuable than mere examination qualification.

3. no fresh grounds appear to have been shown to modify para 113 eddy 24. 2. 99. It is not stated that efforts have been made without success to obtain the services of qualified Candidates, an argument ^{on} which would be a sufficient justification for the grant of the exemption asked for -

See.

Though little justification has been advanced for this exemption, it may perhaps be considered that this post is of a very special nature, requiring no very great educational qualifications but ~~rather~~ an intimate knowledge of the contents of the library & of the routine of issuing & indexing books. It is noted that the applicant has studied up to the Vth form. The pay is only 15-1/2-20 & no qualified person can be expected to remain in it long.

The only effect of granting exemption will be to admit the man to pension and to increments of salary. Presumably he was told the post is for less and Rs 15?

No information is available in the office as to the actual pay which Sadgopal Naydu is now drawing.
