Letter—from A. G. Bourne, Esq., D.Sc., F.R.S., Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 27th September 1907.
No.—C. No. 7225.

With reference to G.O., No. 422, Educational, dated 9th July 1904, I have the honour to report, for the information of Government, that Mr. T. T. Logan, Inspector of Schools, V Circle, has signified to me his intention of applying for combined leave for two years—privilege leave for three months and furlough for a year and nine months in continuation—from or after the 3rd January next preparatory to retirement on a superannuation pension. I understand that he will be eligible for the leave in January next.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., Nos. 779, 780, EDUCATIONAL, DATED 21st NOVEMBER 1907.

[Subject.—Mr. T. T. Logan's leave and retirement.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 27th September 1907, No. 7225.

In G.O., No. 422, Educational, dated 9th July 1904, the Director of Public Instruction was instructed to issue a circular that all officers of the Indian Educational service desiring to retire or to proceed on long leave preparatory to retirement, in any calendar year, should intimate the fact to him by the 1st of the previous December. On the receipt of the information the Director of Public Instruction has to submit a report to Government.

2. This information is required by Government to enable them to apply to the Secretary of State in time to engage suitable candidates for the vacancies when necessary.

3. In accordance with the instruction given in G.O., No. 422, Educational, dated 9th July 1904, the Director of Public Instruction now reports that Mr. T. T. Logan, Inspector of Schools, V Circle, intends applying for combined leave for two years from or after the 3rd January next, preparatory to retirement on a superannuation pension.

4. As Mr. Logan will not retire till January 1910, it does not appear that any application should now be made to the Secretary of State for filling the vacancy.

T.K.—3-10-07.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—4-10-07.

C. A. Souter—5-10-07.

A | I think that we should at once apply to the Secretary of State to send out some one to act in the Indian Educational service on the initial salary of Rupees 500, and he could be confirmed, if found suitable, on Mr. Logan's retirement.

An acting arrangement by the appointment of some one from the Provincial Educational service could of course be made, but the vacancy will be continuous, and we require a full staff of Inspectors, and it seems better to apply at once to the Secretary of State.

H. D. Taylor—5-10-07.

Is there any account objections to such a course as proposed at A. Better refer to the Accountant-General u.o.

H. D. Taylor—10-10-07.

Accountant-General's Office.

During Mr. Logan's leave the vacancy in the Educational Department is only a temporary one and can be filled by the appointment of a graduate from England only under the terms of the Secretary of State's despatch No. 143 of the 25th October B | 1901, recorded in G.O., No. 765, Educational, of the 18th December 1901.

Please put up the reference quoted at B.

H. D. Taylor—17-10-07.

Please see G.O., No. 765, Educational, dated 18th December 1901, put up. It appears to apply only to filling temporary vacancies in certain professorial appointments—vide despatch from the Secretary of State on page 3 of G.O., No. 765, Educational, dated 18th December 1901.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—17-10-07.

Please see the places I have marked with blue pencil in G.O., No. 765, Educational, dated 18th December 1901. The temporary vacancies there referred to are solely professorial and not similar to Mr. Logan's vacancy. The Accountant-General would not therefore seem to be correct. There seems no objection to getting a man out from England at once.

C. A. Souter—18-10-07.

There appears to be no precise precedent, but in any case the Secretary of State's sanction would be necessary as to special terms outside the Civil Service Regulations and the selection would be in his hands. We may ask him to select a man who would in the first instance be on probation for two years with prospects thereafter of confirmation in the Indian Educational service when Mr. Logan retires.

H. D. Taylor—19-10-07.

It would be an advantage to have a man in the temporary vacancy. There is no harm in asking the Secretary of State explaining clearly the conditions.

The draft has been typed and is resubmitted.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—29-10-07.

C. A. Souter—30-10-07.

The draft won't do at all. I have revised it partly, but it is necessary to draw the attention of the Secretary of State to the financial aspect of the question and the rate of pay ordinarily admissible to an acting incumbent.

As this involves a departure from the Civil Service Regulations, I think that we ought to address India or let them move the Secretary of State, but, as the matter is urgent, a copy may perhaps go to India.

H. D. Taylor—31-10-07.

A draft revised on the lines of the alterations made by the Secretary is placed below.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—1-11-07.

I can't see that article 139 applies at all. The officer to be appointed from Home does not and will not belong to the Provincial or Subordinate service. The question of pay in the present case is a separate matter altogether and paragraph 3 of the draft is incorrect. The question is "what pay would a man get (who is not in the Educational service) if he were put in to act in that service?" Would he not get Rs. 500 ipso facto? He would of course not get the benefit of the increments of the salary (500—50—1,000). Please examine further. I have been unable to find anything in the Civil Service Regulations.

C. A. Souter—12-11-07.

Paragraph 3 of the draft simply says that if an officer of the Provincial Educational service were appointed to act in the vacancy caused by Mr. Logan's leave, he would get only an allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem under article 139 of the Civil Service Regulations, but that we want a man from Home who may be specially paid Rs. 500, the full initial salary of the appointment. But neither article 139, nor article 144 under which a person who has no substantive appointmant under Government, will be eligible to one-half of the initial salary of the post to which he is appointed, does apply to appointments in Indian Educational service—vide paragraph 2 of India's letter, No. 415, dated 3rd June 1907, on page 2 of G.O., No. 384, Educational, dated 17th June 1907. The salary of an individual appointed temporarily to the Indian Educational service by the Secretary of State will depend on the actual terms of the agreement entered into with him, and will not ordinarily be less than Rs. 500, which is the minimum salary of an appointment in the Indian Educational service.

K. Rangaswami Aiyangar—6-11-07.

It seems to me unnecessary to mention the Civil Service Regulations at all. The salary to be paid will depend on what the candidate agrees to take and he is not likely to be offered more than Rs. 500. I suggest this sum in the draft.

C. A. Souter—8-11-07.
