EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 785, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 22ND NOVEMBER 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Vacations in Government Colleges.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 12th October 1907, No. 7246.

In G.O., No. 615, Educational, dated 19th September 1906, the Government directed that for the future their previous approval should be obtained to the period of vacation for which it was proposed to close any Government college.

2. In accordance with the above order, the Director of Public Instruction submits, for the approval of Government, a statement of the periods for which it is proposed to close the Presidency College, Madras, and the Teachers' College, Saidapet, on account of the ensuing Christmas vacation and the summer vacation of 1908. The Director of Public Instruction proposes to address Government subsequently as regards the periods of vacation proposed for the other Government colleges; but as early orders are required in the case of the periods of vacation proposed for the Presidency and Teachers' Colleges, the present application has been submitted.

3. It is proposed to close both the colleges for the Christmas and summer vacations as follows:—

		Date of closing.	Date of opening.
Christmas vacation, 1907		23rd December 1907 (Monday).	16th January 1908 (Thursday).
Summer vacation, 1908		11th May 1908 (Monday).	13th July 1908 (Monday).

Vide page 3 of G.O., No. 833, dated 20th December 1906.

* The 14th and 15th of January 1908 appear to be Pongal holidays. This is probably the cause of the one extra day which it is proposed to give in the current year.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—29-10-07.

4. For the last Christmas vacation these two colleges closed on the 24th December 1906 and opened on the 16th January 1907. In other words they were closed for a period of 23 days; this time it is proposed to close them for 24 days.*

It is for consideration whether this proposal may be approved.

5. The period of summer vacation of 1908 is the same as that of the current year.

6. The Director of Public Instruction's proposal may be approved. The draft placed below may issue.

T.K.—20-10-07.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—29-10-07.

C. A. SOUTER—31-10-07.

The note does not say whether the proposals are in accordance with the Educational Rules or any other rules which may be specially applicable to these colleges.

H. D. TAYLOR—1-11-07.

There is no provision in the new Educational Rules (Fifth edition) regarding vacation in colleges.

2. According to rule 62 (i) of the old Educational Rules, 4th Edition, page 16, the summer vacation in first-grade colleges is usually two months, in second-grade colleges, one month and fifteen days. In the same rule it was stated that the Christmas vacation should usually extend from the 23rd December to the 15th January.

3. The new Educational rule corresponding to rule 62 of the fourth edition is rule 88. In this rule all references to colleges have been omitted—vide marginal note against paragraph 199 on page 43 of the notes with G.O., No. 509, Educational, dated 31st July 1906. In Mr. Butterworth's note on the margin of paragraph 193 of the same notes, it was stated: "It is proposed to omit throughout all references to colleges, leaving them to be dealt with by the special rules under which they are managed. This may be approved. The number of colleges under public management is small and they can be dealt with individually."

Page 83 of G.O., No. 841, Educational, dated 27th December 1906.

4. Regulation 361 of the University Regulations says:
"The academic year for an Arts college shall begin not later than the 16th July and end not earlier than the 31st March."

5. Attention is solicited to the Secretary's note on the margin of paragraph 224 of the office-note on page 188 of K.W. G.O., No. 841, Educational, dated 27th December 1906, wherein he observed:

"This* will not interfere with the power of Government to fix the duration of vacations in Government colleges within these limits."
* Regulation No. 361.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—6-11-07.

C. A. SOUTER—8-11-07.

Please revise the draft specifying clearly therein the dates "inclusive" for which each college will be closed. The order which will go to Editors' Table should be complete in itself.

H. D. TAYLOR—8-11-07.

A revised draft is submitted for approval.

T.K.—9-11-07.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—9-11-07.

C. A. SOUTER—11-11-07.

Another letter has since been received from Director of Public Instruction dealing with dates of vacation for all other colleges. It would be better to embody all in a single G.O.

H. D. TAYLOR—12-11-07.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 9th November 1907, No. 7638.

A revised draft dealing with all the colleges is submitted for approval.

2. For the Christmas vacation of 1906-1907 the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Colleges and the Training College at Rajahmundry were closed for 23 days, that is, from the 24th December 1906 to 15th January 1907. For the ensuing Christmas vacation it is proposed to close the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Colleges for 28 days from the 23rd December 1907 to 20th January 1908. In respect of the Rajahmundry College, the Director of Public Instruction has noted that the students will find it impossible to attend the college before the 18th January (Saturday) for the reason that boats do not ply before the 16th or 17th on account of Pongal feast. As regards the Kumbakonam College no reason is given.

3. For the summer vacation of 1908, it is proposed to close the Law College from the 17th April to 5th July 1908 combining the Easter holidays with the summer vacation. The Director of Public Instruction notes:

"Friday the 17th April is Good Friday. The Easter holidays occupy the week following and the High Court vacation commences on Monday the 27th April."

Under rule 33 of the Law College rules, the college shall be closed for the summer vacation at the same time as the High Court, but the proposal to combine the Easter holidays with the summer vacation is opposed to paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 833, Educational, dated 20th December 1906.

T.K.—14-11-07.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—18-11-07.

The dates proposed by the Director of Public Instruction are within the limits of the academical year as prescribed in University Regulation 361.

Christmas vacation.—The Law College is entitled to a month at Christmas—rule 33 of Law College rules. This has been provided for.

Pongal is stated to fall on 14th and 15th January 1908 (Tuesday and Wednesday). I see no reason, in these circumstances, why the Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry Colleges should not open on the same date (16th January) as the Presidency College. The number of students who come to Rajahmundry by boat must be very small. Cocanada is connected by rail.
Make it 17th Friday and the Saturday is a holiday; they will have time to settle down.
G. S. F[ORBES].

Summer vacation.—The proposals may be accepted except as regards the Law College, which should close on Monday 27th April. The 25th and 26th (Saturday and Sunday) are holidays, but work can go on on 22nd, 23rd and 24th.

Yes.

G. S. F[ORBES].

From 6th January to 16th April inclusive will make a very short term.
