NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 789, EDUCATIONAL,
DATED 23RD NOVEMBER 1907.

[SUBJECT.—Transfer of juvenile offenders from the Reformatory School, Chingleput, to that at Bombay].

From the Government of India, dated 23rd October 1907, No. 843.

Please see the notes and orders with G.O., No. 596, Educational, dated 14th September 1907.

2. In paragraph 4 of letter No. 597, Educational, dated 14th September 1907, the Government of India were requested, under the authority vested in them by section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897, to issue a general order authorizing the transfer of juvenile offenders from the Reformatory School at Madras to that at Bombay and vice versa.

3. The Government of India state in reply that, in exercise of the power conferred by section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorize the transfer, whenever occasion may require, of juvenile offenders who are natives of districts in the Bombay Presidency from the Reformatory School at Chingleput to the Reformatory School at Yeravda in the Bombay Presidency. Bombay will no doubt raise the point when necessary.

H. D. TAYLOR.

They have not, however, passed any orders on the other part of the proposal, namely, the transfer of offenders from Bombay to Madras. May the Government of India be addressed again on this point please?

4. The present reply of the Government of India, however, disposes of the case which gave rise to the present reference, and it is submitted that the substance of India's reply may be communicated to the Director of Public Instruction.

5. The draft placed below is for approval.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—9-11-07.

C. A. SOUTER—11-11-07.

H. D. TAYLOR—12-11-07.

The form of order is incorrect. It should not be for the information merely of the Director of Public Instruction!

Paragraph 1 should state the general power conferred.

Then there should be a paragraph 2 instructing the Director of Public Instruction as to the circumstances in which proposals should be made, i.e., those on which we made the representation, please complete paragraph 2 of draft as I have begun it.

G. S. F[ORBES]—11-11-07.

Please see pencil addition made to paragraph 2 of the draft. It will be inked in after approval by the Secretary.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—13-11-07.

C. A. SOUTER—14-11-07.

But have not orders to be passed in regard to the transfer of the eleven inmates regarding whom this correspondence arose?

H. D. TAYLOR—15-11-07.

Please see paragraph 3 now added, which will meet the cases of the offenders now detained who are referred to in the Director of Public Instruction's letter, R.O.C. No. 2516, dated 16th May 1907. It is observed that one of the eleven persons mentioned in the list on page 3 of G.O., No. 596, Educational, dated 14th September 1907, was due for discharge on 21st October 1907.

K. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR—20-11-07.

Is it necessary to refer specifically to the eleven pupils? The Director of Public Instruction can, under the authority of the Government Order, apparently, transfer the boys himself. It does not seem necessary for Government to pass orders in each case. As a matter of fact under section 15 (1) of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897, the Court or Magistrate will itself be competent to send a boy to Bombay.

C. A. SOUTER—21-11-07.

Better let the full draft issue and settle the case finally, pending any further proposal of the Director of Public Instruction.

Issue.
