Please see G.O.No.685 Educational, dated 9th October 1907 in which four clerks have been sanctioned for the consolidation of Local Rules and Orders. In connection with this temporary establishment, it is submitted that an attender with ability to read proofs also among his other duties will be a desirable addition. His pay may be fixed at ten, twelve or fifteen rupees. This suggestion for the addition of an attender was made when the Budget of the Department was sent up to Ootacamund. The Assistant Secretary and Secretary have apparently approved of it, but it was ~~too late~~ too late for incorporation in the Educational order of 9th October 1907, referred to above. It is respectfully submitted that when the temporary clerks enter on their duties, the need for an attender will be keenly felt and there is no doubt that he will have full work. Further during the stay of Government at Madras, the permanent staff of attenders will be ~~quite~~ ^{any} unable to render ^{any} help to the temporary clerks to the ~~desired~~ ^{desired} extent.
