SUBJECT.

Reorganization of the School of Arts - Madras.

Has Mr. Hadaway instructions as to the revision of the School of Arts? Let me

No instructions appear to have been issued by Govt. to Mr. Hadaway as regards the revision of the School of Arts. In G.O. no. 78 Est., dated 10th February 1906, the Govt. decided to defer, pending the appointment of a new Supt., the consideration of the scheme for the reorganization of the School of Arts, which was then before the Govt.
This G.O. was communicated to the D.P.S.
Perhaps the D.P.S. has already given Mr. Hadaway the necessary instructions on the subject. He may perhaps be asked to whether he has done so.

The work in the latter institution has been unfavourably reported on owing to the use of aniline dyes. Since Mr Hadaway states that excellent work has recently been done in the School of Arts in discovering new vegetable dyes.

As to the drawing classes I gather from Mr Hadaway that in his opinion the system of technical examination and classes was all wrong - capable of improvement and reclassification, while a large number of the European Models should be cleared away, & teaching is to be generally to Indian Models & design.

His report has been awarded.
