Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. T. T. LOGAN, B.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction.
To—the Secretary to Government, Educational Department.
Dated—Madras, the 17th September 1907.
No.—Ref. on Cur. No. 5356.

With reference to G.O., No. 459, Educational, dated 19th July 1907, asking me to report in consultation with the Principal as to what system of instruction apart from mere lectures is calculated to prove of the greatest advantage to the students of the Law College, I have the honour to state that I agree with Mr. Nelson in thinking that the object desired may best be effected by adopting the methods specified in (b) and (d) of paragraph 1 of the Government order.

2. As regards (b) arrangements have already been made for holding class examinations during the current term in accordance with the orders contained in G.O., No. 420, Educational, dated 3rd July 1907, and as regards (d) I think that the system of assigning special hours for interviews to individual students or batches of students should prove useful and that the hours assigned for such instruction should in future appear in the time-tables of work a copy of which is submitted for the Director's approval half-yearly.

Order—No. 28, Educational, dated 11th January 1908.

The Government agree with the Director of Public Instruction in considering that the introduction of the system whereby, in addition to the holding of class examinations, the Principal and other members of the staff assign special hours for interviews to individual students at which inter alia the answers to the questions set at the class examinations should be discussed, will prove satisfactory. The arrangement may be now introduced.
