THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
HOME DEPARTMENT.

Dated Fort St. George, the 15th January 1908.

SIR,

I am directed to reply to paragraph 3 of Mr. Fell's letter No. 812, Education, dated 11th October 1907, inviting the opinion of this Government as to whether the annual State Scholarship tenable in England by Europeans and Eurasians educated in India should be reserved for male candidates only or whether it should be thrown open to female candidates also.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that in the interests of the country the scholarship should be deemed to be reserved ordinarily for a male candidate, but he sees no objection to a female candidate being eligible for the scholarship should no application be received in any year from a suitable male candidate.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

DATED 15TH JANUARY 1908.

[SUBJECT.—Stating that in the award of the State scholarship for Europeans and Eurasians educated in India, preference should ordinarily be given to a male candidate.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 18th December 1907, No. 8793.

Please see paragraph 3 of the letter from the Government of India, No. 812, dated 11th October 1907, on page 3 of G.O., No. 754, Educational, dated 13th November 1907. The Government of India desired that they might be favoured with the opinion of this Government as to whether the State scholarship tenable in England by Europeans and Eurasians educated in India should be reserved for male candidates only or whether it should be thrown open to female candidates also.

2. The Director of Public Instruction, who was requested to give his opinion on this point, states that he sees no objection to female candidates being made eligible for the scholarship referred to, but that in the selection, preference should ordinarily be given to a male candidate if a suitable one is forthcoming.

3. It is for consideration whether the Government of India may be given a reply on the lines of the Director's remarks.

P.R.—23-12-07.

In paragraph 3 of their letter, the Government of India express the opinion that as there is only one scholarship a year it is in the public interests that it should be reserved for male candidates. The Director considers that female candidates may be held to be eligible for scholarship but that preference should ordinarily be given to male candidates. What he apparently means is that if there are no male candidates, the scholarship may be awarded to a female candidate.
