READ—the following paper :—

Despatch—from the Right Honourable JOHN MORLEY, O.M., Secretary of State for India.

To—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

Dated—India Office, London, the 6th December 1907.

No.—194, Public.

Having considered in Council the letter of Your Excellency's Government in the Home Department (Education), No. 24, dated the 31st October 1907, I approve the appointment of Mr. F. E. Morgan, of the Public Works Department, to act as Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Madras, pending the arrival of Mr. Cartwright, the successor to Mr. James, with a presidency allowance of Rs. 100 a month and house-rent Rs. 45 in addition to his pay in the Public Works Department.

ENCLOSURE.

Letter—from His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council.

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Simla, the 31st October 1907.

No.—24.

We have the honour to forward for your information a copy of the correspondence noted in the attached schedule regarding the temporary appointment as Professor of Mechanical Engineering in the College of Engineering, Madras, of Mr. F. E. Morgan, a covenanted engineer of the Public Works Department, pending the arrival of a successor to Mr. James who has been promoted to the Principalship as reported in the Madras Government despatch No. 6 (Education), dated the 22nd May 1907.

2. The duties of the appointment of Professor of Mechanical Engineering are of a very special character, and as there was no qualified officer available in the provincial educational service, and the immediate appointment of a successor to Mr. James was necessary in order to secure continuity in the college courses, the Government of Madras selected Mr. Morgan for the work. They consider that while acting as professor, Mr. Morgan should receive his pay in the Public Works Department, viz., Rs. 600, in addition to a presidency allowance of Rs. 100 a month and house-rent Rs. 45. We have sanctioned this arrangement and we trust that our action in the matter will meet with your approval.

Copy forwarded to the Finance Department for information.
