With reference to Board's Proceedings No. 211, dated 29th July 1907, communicating the concessions made to certain individuals of the late Local Fund Account Department on its provincialisation and amalgamation with the Local Audit Department, I have the honour to state that I find A. REVENUE

Nayudu of this District, No.13 of the statement prepared by the Board has been exempted from examination rules only so far as -- appointments on Rs 30/- are concerned.

2. Prior to 1st April 1906 the date of amalgamation A. Subbarayulu Nayudu was substantively Local Fund Head Accountant on a progressive pay viz., Rs 25-1-35 and his Local Fund post was pensionable under Art. 802, Civil Service Regulations. In due course therefore he would have drawn Rs 35/- but for the amalgamation. Besides, the amalgamation snatched away from him chances of promotion to Rs 50/- which he had in the pensionable post under the Nellore District -- Board prior to the said amalgamation.

3. In the scale for the combined Branch the pay of the Head Accountant was raised from Rs 25-1-35 to Rs 40/-. That being so, following the analogy of the order of Government in regard to Taluk Gumastahs on the reorganization of the Taluk establishments that, each person should, despite his being an unpassed man, get the benefit of the increase in the pay of the office which he holds and the work of which he does (Vide B.P. No.280, dated 14th August 1897), A. Subbarayulu Nayudu would have had a fair claim to get Rs 40/- as Head Accountant of the combined branch. However, apparently, from considerations of seniority of others in the Revenue Department, Mr.

Morris

Morris absorbed Subbarayulu Nayudu into the Revenue Department on Rs 30/- and appointed on paper an accountant who is not fit for the duties but specially recommended to throw open to him, as a compensation, all posts for which Special tests were not required, the latter including some clerical posts on Rs 60/-. Deprived of the future prospects held out in Mr. Morris's recommendation to the Board, Subbarayulu Nayudu besides losing the Rs 40/- post to which he had an equitable claim, is adversely affected by the amalgamation in not being able to rise beyond Rs 30/- although the maximum pay of his former post was Rs 35/-. I venture to think that this is neither the desire of the Board nor the intention of Government. I find from a perusal of the papers that Mr. Morris's grounds of recommendation were not brought out clearly enough in his communication to the Board.

4. It is a little over a year that the changes introduced by the amalgamation in the Account and Audit procedure have been working. In the Revenue Department there are few men who are acquainted with the Local Fund Accounts which require special knowledge. There are fewer still who really understand the variety of changes introduced about only a year ago. These circumstances circumstances have necessitated Subbarayulu Nayudu being kept on as Audit Head Accountant as a working arrangement, despite his being Abkari clerk by designation. Subbarayulu Nayudu has been appointed off and on to act as Local Audit Head Accountant on occurrence of vacancies.

5. I have not known much of Subbarayulu Nayudu personally but I have it on the authority of Mr. Morris that he is a very efficient officer. He is spoken of well by my Treasury Deputy Collector who is of opinion that in keeping Subbarayulu Nayudu out of the Audit Department we shall be denying ourselves of the services of one of the men best fitted for the Local Audit and Account work.

6. In these circumstances, I am constrained to ask for liberal treatment for Subbarayulu Nayudu and I would accordingly ask that his exemption should apply further to the posts of Local Audit Head Accountant and Local Head Auditor for which he is eminently fitted from a long service of 15 years in this Local Fund work. This is all what Mr. Morris intended, I believe, in his recommendation.

Reference, thereon, No.5161/07, dated 20th December 1907.

Submitted to Government for orders with reference to G.O.,

Misc., No.781/Edl., dated 21st November 1907.

2. The Board supports ^{the} Collector's recommendation that A. Subbarayulu Nayudu's exemption from the examination --- rules may be declared to apply to his promotion to the appointments of Local Audit Head Accountant (pay Rs40/-) and Local -- Head Auditor (pay Rs50/-).

The rate may be exempted for the post & 1/2

 why the exemption should be given for the & 1/2 Head Auditors post or Rs 50. It might be a convenient arrangement, but the C.M.
 is not able to set a framed man, though perhaps with less expenditure in account work, for the Rs 50 post - when occasion arise.

As Morris speaks highly of the war - see
