GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from W. O. HORNE, Esq., I.C.S., Inspector-General of Police, Madras.
To—the Chief Secretary to Government.
Dated—the 22nd January 1908.
No.—C. 81-Govt.

I have the honour to request that the appointment of Sergeant in the Police may be included in the Public Service Notification in column B of the table published in article 2 (2) as exempted from the operation of article 1.

2. As matters now stand ex-military men possessing certain certificates of education alone are exempted from the general educational qualification of the Matriculation standard as they are included in column A of article 2 (2). I do not, however, think it advisable to be limited to this field of recruitment and country-bred Europeans or Eurasians, well-fitted to hold such appointments, are to be found, but they will rarely satisfy the requirements of the Public Service Notification.

3. The matter has just come to my notice in the case of one J. M. Lovejoy, at present a head lighthouse keeper, whom I wish to appoint. When the appointment was designated European Head Constable, it was excluded from the operation of article 1 as falling under the classification of "Head Constables." In some of the recent appointments of Sergeants the fact that a general educational qualification was required has been overlooked, but it has now come to my notice that this is an irregularity and I am anxious that matters should be put upon a correct basis.

Order—No. 96, Educational, dated 5th February 1908.

The Government regret that they are unable to accept the proposal of the Inspector-General of Police to exempt generally Sergeants of Police from the operation of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification. Every case in which the Inspector-General considers it desirable to grant such exemption should be submitted for the specific orders of Government.

(True Extract.)

H. D. TAYLOR,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

To the Inspector-General of Police.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 96, EDUCATIONAL, DATED
5TH FEBRUARY 1908.

[SUBJECT.—Exemption of Police Sergeants from the examination rules.]

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 22nd January 1908, No. 81.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Inspector-General's suggestion would amount to this, that sergeants should be exempted from the restrictions of Article 1 of the Public Service notification. The pay of these sergeants is as follows:—

	In the Madras City.	In the mufassal.
* Paragraph 70 of Home Department Resolution, dated 21st March 1905.	RS.	RS.
† Paragraph 11 of Home Department letter, dated 31st March 1905, on page 4 of G.O., No. 1045-A-46, dated 1st July 1905.	80—5—110 *	{ 100 + 90 (biennial increment) 80

2. If the Inspector-General's suggestion is accepted, the papers may be transferred to the Educational department for issue of orders.

N.A.R.—23-1-08.

The Inspector-General wishes sergeants to be exempted from the general educational qualifications which are contained in article 1 of the Public Service notification. He thinks that country-bred Europeans can be found who are suitable for sergeants' posts, but who will rarely satisfy the Public Service notification.

2. Judicial has steadily been against reducing the qualifications necessary for the police, e.g., Sub-Inspectors. It is for orders whether Mr. Horne's proposal is to be approved.

C. A. SOUTER—24-1-08.

I submit that the Inspector-General should send up every case in which he considers it desirable to exempt men. Otherwise we should have a lot of badly educated men who will slip into other appointments through the sergeant of Police billet. If exemptions are given, they should be for appointment as Superintendent of Police only and then further steps will be necessary before these appointments can be used as stepping stones.

H. BRADLEY—25-1-08.

I quite agree.
